General Education Designation Social and Behavioral Science (S) can be found here:

<https://undergrad.aa.ufl.edu/general-education/gen-ed-courses/structure-of-gen-ed-courses/slos-and-performance-indicators/student-learning-outcomes/>

Class Format:

- A combination of lectures and class activities will be used in this course.
- Course materials (assignments, exams, class notes) are located online through the University of Florida's E-Learning System, CANVAS <http://elearning.ufl.edu>
- Faulty Internet connections WILL NOT be accepted as an excusable reason for any missed assignments, activities, quizzes, and/or exams.

Attendance: You are expected to attend all class sessions and be prepared to actively engage in class discussion. It is your responsibility to get a copy of any notes or handouts from a classmate should a class session be missed. University policies regarding attendance will be followed and can be found here: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/infor/attendance.aspx>.

- Attendance will be randomly 'taken' via activity completion, etc. No advance notice will be given. The University of Florida excused absence items will be the only 'reasons' accepted to make up the attendance credit.

Excessive Missing Assignments:

The university recognizes the right of instructors to make attendance mandatory and require documentation for absences, missed assignments, or failing to fully engage in class, including class discussions. After due warning, instructors can prohibit further attendance and subsequently assign a failing grade for the excessive absences. This policy applies to both in-person and online class instruction. Note: If you are missing assignments for any reason, please reach out to me immediately. Failing to communicate with me (respond to emails, discuss progress in the course) could lead to removal from the course for excessive absences and failure to fully engage in the course. I truly dislike having to take such measures. Communication is one of the keys to success in this course.

ChatGPT Policy: Information regarding my policy regarding use of ChatGPT or similar AI tools will be discussed during the first two weeks of class.

What You Can Do to Be Successful in HSC 5618:

- Attend all class sessions.
- Watch ALL supplement videos – this is a requirement.
- Take ownership of your education and learning experience.
- Familiarize yourself with all course due dates.
- Read assigned textbook chapters and/or supplementary materials before beginning any assessment and engaging in discussion forums.
 - Be active in course discussion forums and respect the viewpoints & contributions of your instructor and classmates.
- You are expected to adhere to deadlines. Assignments will NOT be accepted late. I do recognize that personal circumstances may interfere with your ability to meet a deadline. I require prior notification when able to do so. If notified before the deadline of a circumstance that may cause a student to miss an assignment, an extension may be granted.
- If an emergency arises that causes you to miss a deadline, you must contact the instructor within 24 hours and provide formal documentation (if required) within 48 hours.
- Inform me whenever there is a problem related to the class, whenever you feel the need to clarify questions, or whenever you desire to further explore topics of interest.

Course Requirements, Accessibility:

- Reliable Internet connection (DSL, LAN, or cable connection desirable)
- Access to University of Florida's E-Learning System, CANVAS <http://elearning.ufl.edu>
- Webcam and some type of speakers and microphone
- Google Chrome browser (for Honorlock test proctoring)

Course Activities and Evaluations: All assignments are due by 11:59 PM EST.

1. Syllabus quiz: Complete the 10-question syllabus quiz by the due date indicated in the syllabus. 10 points

2. Attendance Assignments: Attendance will be randomly ‘taken’ via activity completion, etc. No advance notice will be given. Points for attendance assignments will vary. Total points awarded: 25 points. The University of Florida excused absence items will be the only ‘reasons’ accepted to make up the attendance credit for a missed day in which attendance is recorded. University policies regarding attendance will be followed and can be found here: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/infor/attendance.aspx>.
3. Exams: There will be 3 exams (3@100 points) given each semester. The exams will be online through Canvas and will cover material from class lectures, text and article readings, and class activities. Each exam may include multiple choice, matching, short answer, and essay questions. The exams are not cumulative.

Your exams in this course will be proctored using Honorlock. Honorlock is a service that allows students to complete their assessment at any location while still ensuring the academic integrity of the exam for the institution. Using almost any webcam and computer, you can take exams at home, at work, or anywhere you have internet access – if considered a secure location. You DO NOT need to create an account, download software, or schedule an appointment in advance. Review the Honorlock guide for more information.

Honorlock Guidelines:

- You will need a webcam and some type of speaker and microphone.
- You will need Google Chrome browser
 - To get started, you will need Google Chrome and download the Honorlock Chrome Extension. You can download the extension at www.honorlock.com/extension/install
- A stable internet connection is required
- You will need a government-issued photo ID or student ID
- No breaks are allowed during your testing session and cell phones and other devices will not be permitted in the testing area.
- No other people are allowed in the area in which the test is being taken.
- Any unauthorized notes, presence of a tablet or cell phone, or other attempts to cheat will abort the test session and will be reported to your instructor – this will result in a zero on the exam and is a student honor code violation.

Grade Appeals. It is your responsibility to review your graded exams when they are returned. After review, students have one week to appeal the grade to the instructor. After one week, a grade will not be changed. THERE WILL BE NO EXCEPTIONS TO THIS POLICY.

Make-Up Exams: There will be no individual make-up exams. Students missing an exam will take the general make-up exam at the semester’s end. This exam will cover material from the entire semester – a cumulative exam. Your grade on this exam will serve as your grade for the missed exam(s). The make-up exam will be given on Wednesday, April 25.

Students may not use this exam to replace a grade on exams 1 - 3 – students may only sit for this exam if they miss one of the 3-course exams.

4. Practical applications: These fun assignments are designed to provide content application to “everyday” experiences. For example, students will be asked to create an adapted sport and a brief video discussing the rules of the sport and show how all individuals are included in the activity. There will be 10 application assignments at 10 points each (100 total points). The due dates are indicated on the syllabus. Rubrics are used to score some of the applications and the rubrics are in canvas. Some practical applications will be completed during class time, and some are due by 11:59 PM on the due date and will be submitted electronically via Canvas. If completion is during class time – students must be present to receive points – if uploaded to canvas and class is missed, a score of zero will be assigned.

5. Article Reading Discussions (5 at 10 points per article).

Beginning with Module 3, supplemental articles will be used to enhance student understanding of how theories are applied in research. Questions will be used to facilitate a discussion on the assigned readings. Each discussion has three prompts/questions – students will choose two of the three to answer. Students will then respond to TWO student discussions by supporting/disputing the reactions of others.

- IMPORTANT: Each article discussion includes three question prompts. Students must choose two of the three and respond accordingly. Student posts must respond to EACH prompt using 150-200 words (each prompt response must meet the 150–200-word count) and must respond to BOTH prompts for peer reply with 50-100 words each.
- Student replies: In other words, students will use 50-100 words to respond to the first prompt for their first chosen student and 50-100 words for the second prompt for their first chosen student. The same will be accomplished for the second student to whom one decides to reply.

See appendix A for more information.

Rubric for personal post article:

7.0 pts Great Job, that is exactly what I was looking for! Reflects good understanding of related article content; answers all prompts in thorough format (150-200 words for each prompt)	4.0 pts Not too bad, it is close to what I was looking for. Lacks full development of a concept or thought related to the o article. Does not answer prompts in a thorough format (100-149 words for each prompt)	2.0 pts Close - but you may wish to consider reviewing course information. Lacks full development of a concept or thought related to the article. Does not answer prompts in a thorough format and/or does not answer all prompts (50-99 words for each prompt).	0.0 pts Uh oh, what happened here? You missed it completely. Posts information that is off-topic, incorrect, or irrelevant to the article. OR no post submitted. Late assignments also receive zero points

6. Practicum Contact Hours with Log and Written Summary (100 points): 15 hours minimum. Each student is required to select a Practical Experience site or sites and volunteer for a minimum of 15 hours during the spring 2023 semester. You must keep a log and complete a summary of the practicum experience. The summary log form, further instructions for the log and summary, and rubrics are in canvas.

- Log directions (40 points): List the dates, hours, sites, and a detailed description of your duties and experiences at the sites. What are you doing and what are you learning? This should serve as a detailed description of what you did/experienced/learned at each visit. You must also obtain a signature from your site supervisor --- for each site. An approved site list plus links to gator volunteer sites are in canvas.
- Summary directions (60 points): After you have completed your logs, you need to write a narrative summary of your experiences. Describe any relevant opinions, feelings, benefits, etc., with the experience(s). Relate how this course helped you at your site(s); relate how your practicum hours helped you with the course. What did you learn from the experience(s) overall? Did this experience help you with your career goals or affect your life in any way? The summary must be 3-5 pages in length. Times New Roman 12 pt. font double-spaced typed.

7. TED talk review and presentation (50 points):

All students will complete a TED talk review and log. The assignment provides students the opportunity to critically think about and apply course information. The full project is due by 11:59 PM on the due date listed in the course schedule.

Instructions for the two-part assignment:

1. Watch TED talks and complete log (25 points). Students will choose FIVE TED talks from the provided list located within Canvas. Students are required to watch each TED talk in its entirety and complete the log associated with the assignment. A row from the associated log is located below and the full log is located within Canvas – utilize one row for each TED talk viewed. Upload the log to the appropriate assignment location within Canvas as a Word document.

TED talk title

Question prompts (answer all with at least two sentences each)

- What is the goal of the presentation?
- What are the main points of the presentation?
- What did you learn from viewing?

Additional comments

Should the reader know anything else about the TED talk? Why did you choose to view this presentation?

- Would you have added or deleted any information? Why or why not?

2. Presentation (25 points). Please note: The presentation has its own location for upload. Upload your presentation as a media file. Each student will present a 5-minute presentation detailing information from your viewed TED talks. More information (and rubric) is located with Canvas.

Comment on all the following in presentation:

- Introduce yourself
- Provide brief information regarding your chosen TED talks
- Discuss in detail your favorite TED talk and why you selected it as your most beneficial
- Discuss what you learned overall
- Discuss how viewing the TED talks helped with your understanding of the course presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without the permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third-party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA):

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protections for persons with disabilities. Among other entities, this legislation requires that all students with documented disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation for their disabilities. To connect with the Disability Resource Center please visit <https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/>. If you and you need specific accommodation for the course, I will gladly provide those accommodations.

- If you did not register formally, but you know you have behavioral or learning disabilities or other issues that might affect your performance in the course, please tell me and I will help you. If special needs/circumstances arise, it is your responsibility to notify me immediately, not at the course's end.

Health and Wellness:

- U Matter, We Care: Your well-being is important to the University of Florida. The U Matter, We Care initiative is committed to creating a culture of care on our campus by encouraging members of our community to look out for one another and to reach out for help if a member of our community is in need. If you or a friend is in distress, please contact umatter@ufl.edu so that the U Matter, We Care Team can reach out to the student in distress. A nighttime and weekend crisis counselor is available by phone at 352-392-1575. The U Matter, We Care Team can help connect students to the many other helping resources available including, but not limited to, Victim Advocates, Housing staff, and the Counseling and Wellness Center. Please remember that asking for help is a sign of strength. In case of emergency, call 9-1-1.
- Counseling and Wellness Center: Visit the Counseling and Wellness Center website or call 352-392-1575 for information on crisis services as well as non-crisis services.

ACADEMIC HONESTY: You are expected to make an honest effort in this class and to be scrupulous in maintaining academic integrity. Cheating and plagiarism will not be tolerated, and college guidelines on academic misconduct will be enforced.

By formally registering for coursework at the University of Florida, you agreed to abide by the following statements from the University:

- As a student at the University of Florida, you have committed yourself to uphold the Honor Code, which includes the following pledge: “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity. “You are expected to exhibit behavior consistent with this commitment to the UF academic community, and on all work submitted for credit at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." It is assumed that you will complete all work independently in each course unless the instructor provides explicit permission for you to collaborate on course tasks (e.g., assignments, papers, quizzes, exams).
- Furthermore, as part of your obligation to uphold the Honor Code, you should report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. It is your responsibility to know and comply with all university policies and procedures regarding academic integrity and the Student Honor Code. Violations of the Honor Code at the University of Florida will not be tolerated. Violations will be reported to the Dean of Students Office for consideration of disciplinary action. To avoid misunderstandings on both our parts, please refer to the University of Florida Student Honor Code located at <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/SCCR/honorcodes/honorcode.php>.

Title IX: the University of Florida has zero tolerance for sexual discrimination, harassment, assault/battery, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking. Students are encouraged to report any experienced or witnessed occurrences to law enforcement and/or one of UF's Title IX Coordinators. Students can report incidents or learn more about their rights and options by contacting Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution at 202 Peabody Hall, 352-392-1261; or visit: www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/incident-report/ OR www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/victim-rights/

Assignments: Due by the date specified on the syllabus - EST. Assignments will not be accepted late. I do recognize that personal circumstances arise that may interfere with your ability to meet a deadline. If these things do occur, let the course instructor know as soon as you know – before the deadline. See the emergency information above. Anytime you have a question or problem, email the course instructor immediately.

E-mail Etiquette: Email Dr. Sneed-Murphy: I prefer the following email etiquette:

- The subject line should indicate the content of or reason for the message.
- Please begin the message by addressing your recipient with “Dear Dr. Sneed-Murphy, or Dr. Murphy.”
- The message ends with your name (please include your first AND last name).

Recommendation Letter Policy (please provide 6 weeks prior notice):

- You must be in good standing in Dr. Murphy's classes (good attendance, grade, etc.)
- You have taken at least TWO courses with Dr. Murphy
- You have met with Dr. Murphy at least TWICE in her office or via Zoom.
- You both verbally and electronically request the letter of recommendation.

Course Assistance: If you have questions about course expectations or the grading procedures, or if you have difficulty with the course content, the readings, the lectures, the class activities, or the assignments, please email the course instructor immediately. Do not wait until it is too late. I provide a discussion post specifically for student questions. Other students may have related questions – this discussion post allows me to answer for all students to view. Students should review the syllabus and the student discussion post before sending an e-mail as the answer may already be answered.

If you are reading this – you have discovered an ‘easter egg’ in the syllabus – please don’t share this with your friends ☺ *Students will receive 3 points extra credit if I receive a picture of an alligator (Albert counts!) in my email by Friday, September 1 at 5:00 PM.

Online Course Evaluation: You are asked to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback professionally and respectfully is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. You will be notified when the evaluation period opens and can complete evaluations through the email, they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>.

Success and Study Tips:

- Attend class and be an attentive student.
- Ask questions – as soon as they arise.
- Engage in course discussion and the course office hours.
- Do not fall behind – ask questions as soon as you think of one.
- Stay organized – post the due dates, place the due dates in your phone calendar – set reminders!
- Check Canvas announcements daily – or twice daily.
- Review all power points and supplemental material weekly.
- Contact the instructor or post to the student question discussion if you need/want further information/clarification.
- Stay motivated and positive – this material is FANTASTIC!

Supplemental Information about Discussion Posts & Replies: by Elle O’Keefe

<http://www.rasmussen.edu/student-life/blogs/online-learning/creating-the-perfect-discussion-post-for-online-classes/>

- The discussion area is the foundation for two-way communication with your instructors and classmates.
- You hope that your post will draw other students’ attention to validate your opinions, add insight, and build a stronger learning experience. Classmate feedback can be priceless to your learning process. After you make such an investment, it can be discouraging to see that nobody responded to your discussion post.

Content

- Make sure that your posts facilitate comments. Sometimes in a discussion forum the questions can be worded so that everyone’s responses are similar. In this case, you will want to go the extra mile by adding a question at the end of your post, so you are facilitating a question and answer-type conversation among your classmates and instructor.
- Beyond answering the questions, incorporate your experiences with a related subject matter. People love to read stories because it helps them feel an emotional connection to the content.
- Current events are an effective way to get people involved in discussion forums. Local or national news stories may tie in perfectly content discussed in your online classroom’s forum. For example, an article about mortgage fraud might be beneficial in a discussion forum about ethical decision making.
 - Do not be afraid to intertwine the course content learned in different courses to supplement your discussion forums. Learning is funny: even though we might just think that all courses are taught in isolation, they all really combine as pieces of a larger puzzle.
 - Ask a thought-provoking question or taking a controversial stand. After you learn the material, you can step back and look how you can apply it in a difficult situation where your original answer might seem counterintuitive. Do not be afraid to ask the “Yeah, but what if...” questions.
 - If you say the same thing everyone else says, you can expect the same results. Add something different, something of value, and look at the changes to your response rate.

Formatting

- If your post is easy to read, it is likely that more people will read and respond. In such case, if everyone is using single spacing, use single spacing. If everyone is formatting the text to the left, format it to the left. If everyone uses size 3, use size 3. If everyone is using a specific font and color, use the specific font and color. You want to avoid any distracting colors, fonts, or awkward spacing, or other odd formatting. Look at your posts, to see how similar they are to your classmates' posts. If they are quite different, then change them.

- Avoid spelling or grammatical errors. You lose credibility and your instructors and fellow students may discount the quality of your posts if your posts are riddled with errors. Do not let the reader try to interpret what you are saying: say it clear and precise.

- Replies. If you want to maximize the number of responses, respond to several peers each week. First, identify a group of peers whose opinions you value (by judging the quality of their posts and responses to other classmates) and make sure to respond to at least two of the members of that group each week.

- Try to respond to every one of your classmates throughout the course. When you show that you value your classmates' contributions, they will value yours. Remember the saying; the best way to make a friend is to be one. Well, the best way to be responded to in the discussion forum is by providing good responses to your classmates.
