COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course offers a multidisciplinary approach to studying HIV disease. It examines the health, psychosocial, legal, and educational impacts of HIV/AIDS on individuals, communities, society, and globally.

REQUIRED MATERIALS

This course does not require a textbook. Course readings are integral to the course and included in course modules. All other course materials (and links) are located within the course in Canvas.

COURSE FORMAT

This course is 100% online and utilizes a variety of methodologies including PowerPoint lectures, individual and multiparty activities, discussion boards, case studies, and videos.

COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

By the end of this course, students should be able to:

1. Describe HIV/AIDS etiology, epidemiology, prevention, clinical manifestations, testing, and treatments.
2. Describe HIV's highest risk groups and infection control measures.
3. Develop an awareness of the social and psychological implications for individuals living with HIV infection and their families, support systems, communities, and society.
4. Examine the global impact of and response to HIV disease.

Course and University Policies

PERSONAL CONDUCT POLICY

Students are expected to exhibit behaviors that reflect highly upon themselves and our University. No Student may share, work, or collaborate with another student on any assessment activity in the course. UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>) specifies the number of behaviors that violate this code and possible sanctions.

Furthermore, you are obliged to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to the appropriate personnel. Please consult the instructor or TA in this class if you have any questions or concerns.

ASSIGNMENT AND EXAM MAKE POLICY

Assignments are available at least two weeks in advance of their due dates and therefore, are not accepted late and make-up quizzes are not permitted unless they are in accordance with universities policies which can be found in the online catalog at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

A student experiencing an illness should visit the UF Student Health Care Center or their preferred healthcare provider to seek medical advice and obtain documentation. If you have an illness, family emergency, or death, please contact the Dean of Students Office (www.dso.ufl.edu) and follow the DSO Care Team procedures for documentation and submission of a request for make-up assignment (<https://care.dso.ufl.edu/instructor-notifications/>). The DSO will contact the instructor. Do not provide any documentation to the instructor regarding illness or family emergency. This is your personal and protected information. The DSO is qualified to receive and verify the documents you provide. The instructor will follow the recommendations from the DSO. Requirements for make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the Disability Resource Center by visiting their Get Started page at <https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/>. Students need to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

COURSE EVALUATIONS

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via Materials. Guidance on how to give feedback professionally and respectfully is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from materials, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>.

Quizzes –Quizzes are “open notes” and students are permitted to use only lecture-generated notes. Quizzes will consist of multiple choice and short answer items. Quizzes are based on PowerPoint lectures (with an emphasis on the learning objectives) and supplemental readings. This course does not include a final or comprehensive exam.

Module Activities – A variety of Module activities will enhance, supplement, and/or expand on the PowerPoint lecture content. Additional details will be provided later.

Discussion Board – Discussion Board activities will be utilized to encourage and facilitate critical thinking, community building, and demonstration of knowledge key concepts. Your responses must be clear, concise, credible, thoughtful, and considerate, and adhere to the mechanics of formal writing (e.g., spelling, grammar).

Each Discussion assignment will require you to read the responses posted by your classmates and respond to at least one of those postings. Your initial posts, which will be responses to the discussion prompt, must be posted by 11:55 p.m. on the Wednesday of the week the Discussion Board is assigned. Your responses to the answers posted by other students are due 11:55 p.m. on the Friday of that week. Please be aware that the Canvas due date listed is the date for the initial response (Wednesday.). You must remember and/or place a reminder in your calendar that the peer response is due Friday.

Student Introductory Video – Let us get to know each other.

Majpr Project – TBA

This course does not include an extra credit component.

GRADING SCALE

Final grades are determined by the total number of points that are rounded up. Assignments will be graded, and points posted approximately one week after the due date. An announcement will be posted after the posting of each assignment’s grades. Quiz grades will be automatically posted immediately after each quiz. Students will have 72 hours from the posting of grades to notify the instructor if they feel there is an error in grading. More detailed information regarding current UF grading policies can be found here: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/grades-grading-policies/>.

SUCCESS AND STUDY TIPS

Students should allow themselves ample time to complete assignments and prepare for quizzes. Some assignments will take more or less time than others. PowerPoints are simply outlines of the information presented in the audio lectures. Quizzes are based solely on lecture content. Therefore, I recommend students do the following:

1. Review each PowerPoint PDF in advance of the video lecture, paying close attention to the Learning Objectives.
2. Take notes during the lecture, focusing on the Learning Objectives.

BEST WISHES FOR A GREAT FALL SEMESTER 2023!
