Course & University Policies

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Active participation is key to success in this course, and attendance is assessed through engagement in assignments, projects, presentations, and exams. You are expected to complete all coursework during the period in which it is assigned or administered. Failure to do so, whether due to absence, tardiness, or early departure, will result in a zero for that work without exception. It is your responsibility to obtain any missed information from classmates. Please note that our class attendance practices align with the University's policies, which can be found here.

PERSONAL CONDUCT POLICY

Students are expected to exhibit behaviors that reflect highly upon themselves and our University. UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obliged to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult the instructor or TA in this class. Violations will be reported to the Dean of Students Office for consideration of disciplinary action.

MAKE-UP POLICY

A student experiencing an illness should visit the UF Student Health Care Center or their preferred healthcare provider to seek medical advice and obtain documentation. If you have an illness, family emergency or death, please contact the Dean of Students Office (www.dso.ufl.edu) and follow the DSO Care Team procedures for documentation and submission of a request for make-up assignment (<https://care.dso.ufl.edu/instructor-notifications/>). The DSO will contact the instructor. Do not provide any documentation to the instructor regarding illness or family emergency. This is your personal and protected information. The DSO is qualified to receive and verify the documents you provide. The instructor will follow the recommendations from the DSO. Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found in the online catalog at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>.

ACCOMMODATING STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the Disability Resource Center by visiting their Get Started page at <https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/>. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

Grading

Student performance is the bedrock of the grading system in this course. Assessment includes, but is not limited to, examinations, assignments, in-class activities, presentations, class participation, and projects. Your final grade will reflect the sum of points collected over the semester, translated into a letter grade according to the fixed grading scale provided in the syllabus. Please note that the grading scale is applied rigorously and will not be modified. Requests for grade alterations based solely on dissatisfaction with overall academic performance will not be entertained. For transparency and tracking, grades will be regularly updated and can be accessed through the CANVAS platform.

Grade Breakdown

Assessments

Throughout the semester, your understanding and application of course materials will be evaluated through a variety of assessments:

Quizzes and Exams:

1. Quiz: One quiz will be based on course material through Module 3, including lectures and guest speaker insights. It will consist of multiple-choice, true/false, fill-in-the-blank, and short-answer questions.
2. Midterm Exam: Similar in format to the quiz, the midterm will gauge your cumulative knowledge up to that point in the course (Modules 1-7).

3. Final Exam: The comprehensive final will involve a case study analysis, requiring a series of short answers and essays, where you'll apply semester-long learning to real-world scenarios.

Yellowdig Discussions (10 weeks): Engage with your peers on Yellowdig, a platform designed to extend our classroom discussions. Here, you're encouraged to share relevant news, start conversations, and explore ideas in a collaborative online environment. Participation details are on Canvas.

Assignments: Six assignments will challenge you to apply course concepts to practical scenarios, including facility inspections, risk management planning, case reviews, standard development, venue evacuations, and emergency response exercises.

Graded Discussions: Participate in seven key discussions focusing on different aspects of risk management, such as hazard identification, accident analysis, and compliance with safety regulations.

Project and Video: Develop a segment of a business continuity plan for a selected threat affecting entertainment/sport offerings.

FEMA Certification: Complete the FEMA certificate with a score of 75 or higher to demonstrate your understanding of emergency management. Submission of proof is required through CANVAS.

For more detailed information on assignments, grading, and additional course components, please check the relevant sections on Canvas.

GRADING SCALE

In our course, grading is conducted with careful attention to detail and fairness. You can expect a grading turnaround time of approximately 7-10 days for all assignments, during which either I or a graduate assistant will review your submissions. Once completed, your grades will be posted on Canvas. If you believe there's an error in your graded work, don't hesitate to reach out to either of us for a review. It's important to note that we adhere to a strict no-rounding policy for grades; the marks you receive are final as per the assessment criteria. For a comprehensive understanding of the grading system, including how numerical scores translate to letter grades, please refer to the University of Florida Grading Policies and the scale below. These resources will offer you detailed information on the university's grading standards and procedures. More detailed information regarding current UF grading policies can be found here: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/grades-grading-policies/>.

Any requests for additional extra credit or special exceptions to these grading policies will be interpreted as an honor code violation (i.e., asking for preferential treatment) and will be handled accordingly.

SUCCESS AND STUDY TIPS

Welcome to a journey of learning where enthusiasm meets dedication. As your guide, I am highly approachable and value honesty above all. My teaching style is animated and enthusiastic --- and sometimes I can be overwhelming and quick (ask me to slow down, if need be), but I firmly believe that by reviewing the lectures and actively participating, you will set yourself on a path to success.

Remember, there are no bad questions—only missed opportunities to understand better. If there's something you're unsure about, I encourage you to ask. While I may not take formal attendance, I am observant and take note of who is present, engaged, and contributing to our class discussions. Debate and challenge are not just welcomed but expected; they are the crucible in which we forge a deeper understanding.

We all have unique insights to offer, and I anticipate learning from you just as much as you do from me. Let's collaborate to make this learning experience one where the exchange of knowledge is mutual. My aspiration for you is high—I hope to see you surpass my achievements by using this course to advance beyond the learning curves I encountered in my career and educational journey.

Let's make the most of this academic term by engaging fully, staying informed, and embracing the collective wisdom of our class.

Course Flexibility: Please note that, when necessary, I reserve the right to make modifications to the syllabus, including changing examination and assignment dates, as well as updating the course content. Any changes will be clearly communicated in class and posted on the course website. You are responsible for staying informed about and adapting to these updates.

Copyright Acknowledgement: All materials provided for this course are protected by copyright. They are for educational purposes within this course and must not be shared or used beyond the scope of our classroom without permission.

Legal Disclaimer: It's important to understand that the information we discuss in class does not constitute legal advice. Should you require legal counsel, I encourage you to utilize the campus legal resources available to you or consult with a professional attorney.

Privacy: Our class sessions may be audio-visually recorded for students in the class to refer back to and for enrolled students who are unable to attend live. Students who participate with their camera engaged or utilize a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, be sure to keep your camera off and do not use a profile image. Likewise, students who unmute during class and participate orally agree to have their voices recorded. If you are not willing to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live. The chat will not be recorded or shared. As in all courses, unauthorized sharing of recorded materials is prohibited.

For in-class recording, the following statement related to Florida's House Bill 233 is suggested but not mandatory:

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.
