Course Description

Advanced Sport Career Prep provides students with the opportunity to gain practical experience within a sport management agency. Students will be able to apply their skills and knowledge as agency volunteers in their particular option area. Students are expected to utilize leadership and management skills to enhance participant involvement and agency operations. In addition, the course has been designed to assist the student in the transition from student to a paid professional. The student will become familiar with the resources necessary to find potential internship sites and to increase his or her knowledge regarding professionalism and business practices. Upon the successful completion of this course, all students will have finished their practical field experience requirement (60 hours) and have the tools necessary to submit a quality proposal for their required internship (many packets will be submitted during the term). During the course, we will provide resources to help students generate and modify their resume and cover letter, help them position their credentials more effectively as they pursue a senior internship, help them refine their site assessment skills, and we will also require students to practice one of the most important success prediction skills, the personal interview.

Minimum Technical Skills

To complete your tasks in this course, you will need a basic understanding of how to operate a computer, and how to use word processing software.

Course Goals

By the end of this course, you will be able to:

1. To prepare students for the internship experience or a senior practicum.
2. To foster the development of career objectives.
3. To facilitate experiences in which students can evaluate strengths and needs related to a career.
4. To provide information regarding the preparation for an internship.
5. To provide information regarding issues related to the world of work.
6. To provide information related to professional development.
7. To provide formal field experience(s) of at least 60 total documented clock hours in appropriate professional recreation organizations/agencies prior to internship.

Course Materials

No textbook is required. Any readings will be provided by the instructor via the Canvas course site.

Course Communication

All communication for the course will be disseminated either through Canvas Course messaging, Canvas Announcements, or through your University of Florida email address. Please make sure you are professional and that use your school email address and include the following information when emailing me:

Name

Course

Respectful salutation (greeting: ex. Hello, Dear) and valediction (closing: Sincerely, Best)

I will only send emails to your university email address so you should be checking that regularly.

Please allow for 72 hours for a response on weekdays not including weekends.

Course Policies

This course is primarily done in a combination of a lecture format and engagement exercises that examine current and relevant issues in sports. Opinions held by other students should be respected. Students are expected to attend class and complete in class and homework assignments for each module. Students are informed of the due dates for assignments well in advance through this syllabus and Canvas. Therefore, extensions will not be given for case studies, quizzes, or the group project and no late work will be accepted. Exceptions are excused absences consistent with the university policies and at the discretion of the instructor with appropriate documentation. It is the student's responsibility to arrange to make up assignments, if allowed.

Additionally, because technical problems can arise at any time, I strongly advised that you do not wait until the last minute to turn in assignments, complete discussions, engagement activities, or quizzes. I am not sympathetic to issues that arise due to procrastination.

University Honesty Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor for this course.

Disability Resource Center

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the Disability Resource Center. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester. The Disability Resource Center contact information is as follows: 352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/

Course Structure

As this is an online class, you are responsible for observing all posted due dates and are encouraged to be self-directed and take responsibility for your learning.

Course Grading and Requirements

The final grade for this course is based on several categories, each weighted differently and listed below. All deadlines can be found on the Course Schedule and within each assignment on Canvas.

Attendance

Attendance will be taken at the start of each class session. Participation is important. Students will need to engage with the topics and as such, participation and attendance points are awarded for contributing to class through discussion, group project, and case studies. Students are responsible for keeping up with the readings. All students are expected to engage actively in-class discussions and group activities, pay attention to lectures, and contribute positively to the overall class environment. Students who persist in displaying lethargic, disrespectful, or disruptive behavior may be asked to leave class, given an unexcused absence for the day, and risk losing points on the in-class activity for that day.

Regular attendance is required. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of class and students entering the classroom afterward will be counted as tardy. A student who comes in late is responsible for notifying the instructor after class on the same day that they did, in fact, attend class. Failure to do so will result in the student being counted as absent. Being tardy three times without an excused absence will result in one unexcused absence. In accordance with university policy, excused absences include documented illness, deaths in the immediate family and other documented crises, call to active military duty or jury duty, religious holy days, and official University activities. These absences will be accommodated in a way that does not arbitrarily penalize students who have a valid excuse. Consideration will also be given to students whose dependent children experience serious illness. It is the student's responsibility to provide documentation to excuse an absence. If such documentation is not provided within one week after returning to class, then the absence will not be excused. It is also the student's responsibility to initiate communication with the instructor about make-up work within one week after returning to class. The professor may designate a make-up assignment that is different from the original. Students may not make up in-class assignments for unexcused absences. Unexcused absences will also have a direct impact on each student's final grade: Three or more unexcused absences will result in a failing grade (F) for the entire course.

All written assignments are submitted through Turnitin via Canvas, unless otherwise instructed. Plagiarism and forms of cheating are violations of the Student Honor Code. If a student has plagiarized, they can be given a zero for the assignment and an Honor Code Incident Report will be filed with the Dean of Students Office. Please be sure to properly cite all sources directly quoted and paraphrased in each assignment using the APA style. Proper citation includes having parenthetical citations as well as a reference list. A link to APA Guidelines is included in all assignment instructions. Also, citation style guides can be found on the library's website. If you are unsure about how or whether to cite something, please ask the instructor for guidance.

Course Grading Scale and Standards

0-609	E

See current UF Grading Policies for further details: Grades and Grading Policies

 Grades will be posted in the CANVAS gradebook. Grades are dependent on the student's performance measured by assignments, discussion boards, and quizzes. Final grades are based on the accumulation of points the student earns throughout the semester. Total points are converted to letter grades using the grading scale below. Rounding up is completely under the discretion of the instructor. DO NOT ASK. The grading scale is strictly enforced and unchangeable. The professor will NOT change grades at the end of the semester because the student is unhappy with their academic performance. Asking the instructor for extra credit or special exceptions to these grading policies will be interpreted as an Honor Code violation (i.e., asking for preferential treatment) and will be handled accordingly.

*If you want to challenge a grade of an assignment, please come to the professor with evidence from the textbook or case materials to justify your grade change request. You must do so within three days after the grade has been posted. Do not take screenshots of quizzes. The instructor already has access to them.

Tips for Success

- Schedule "class times" for yourself. It is important to do the coursework on time each week.
- Read ALL of the material contained on the CANVAS site and the syllabus. There is a lot of helpful information that can save you time and help you meet the objectives of the course.
- Ask for help or clarification of the material if you need it.
- Do not wait to ask questions! Waiting to ask a question might cause you to miss a due date.
- Do your work well before the due dates. Sometimes things happen. If your computer goes down when you are trying to submit an assignment, you will need time to troubleshoot the problem.
- To be extra safe, back up your work to an external hard drive, thumb drive, or through a cloud service.

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodations. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester to ensure full access to all accommodations.

Course Evaluations

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>.

U Matter, We Care

Your well-being is important to the University of Florida. The U Matter, We Care initiative is committed to creating a culture of care on our campus by encouraging members of our community to look out for one another and to reach out for help if a member of our community is in need. If you or a friend is in distress, please contact U Matter, We Care so that the U Matter, We Care Team can reach out to the student in distress. A nighttime and weekend crisis counselor is available by phone at 352-392-1575. The U Matter, We Care Team can help connect students to the many other helping resources available including, but not limited to, Victim Advocates, Housing staff, and the Counseling and Wellness Center. Please remember that asking for help is a sign of strength. In case of emergency, call 9-1-1.
