Research Methods in Sport Business

COURSE SYLLABUS

SUMMER 2020

Section 16185(OSM)

INSTRUCTOR:

Michael Sagas, EdD
Professor and Chair
Department of Sport Management
352-294-1640
msagas@ufl.edu
Office hours: By Appointment via Zoom

REQUIRED COURSE READINGS:

1. All readings are posted on the Canvas website.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course introduces students to research methodology and application of social science research. Areas covered include the study of the research process, research designs, proposal writing, sampling procedures, measurement, survey research, hypothesis testing, and the research presentation.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

By the end of this course, students will be able to:

1. Articulate the research process or the ways in which researchers go about their work, and the ways in which scientific inquiry proceeds.
2. Describe and demonstrate skills and knowledge to discriminate "good" from "bad" research reported in academic, business, and trade journals.
3. Gain an enlightened understanding the available research in the sports business
4. Demonstrate and articulate skills to locate problem areas in organizations, and plan, organize, design, and conduct research to help solve the identified problems.
5. Demonstrate the ability to write and present research proposals and reports for managerial decision making in sports organizations.

COURSE FORMAT:

Students are also expected to view all of the course lectures and complete all assignments as assigned in the syllabus and posted on the Canvas course website.

GENERAL EVALUATION GUIDELINES:

Grades will conform to the degree to which each of the requirements stressed in class is met in the various assignments and projects.

RESEARCH PROPOSAL

The major project of the semester is a research proposal conducted on a sport management or athlete development problem within a client organization. Students should allocate adequate time to get the project done on time. Students will produce a research proposal prospectus for approval prior to beginning their projects.

QUIZZES:

There will be two short essay quizzes. A maximum of 1 hour and 15 minutes will be devoted to each quiz. Quizzes are open note.

ASSIGNMENTS:

Students will be responsible for several assignments as outlined in the grading scale and course outline. Specific instructions for completing each assignment will be posted on Canvas course website under the Module and Assignment pages.

Honor Code Policy

“We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.”

The following pledge will be either required or implied on all work:

“On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment”

It is the duty of the student to abide by all rules set forth in the UF Graduate Catalog. Students are responsible for reporting any circumstances, which may facilitate academic dishonesty.

University Policy on Academic Misconduct:

Academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. Students should be sure that they understand the UF Student Honor Code at <https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/policies/student-honor-code-student-conduct-code/>

University Policy on Accommodating Students with Disabilities: Students requesting accommodation for disabilities must first register with the Dean of Students Office (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/>). The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the instructor when requesting accommodation. You must submit this documentation prior to submitting assignments or taking the quizzes or exams. Accommodations are not retroactive, therefore, students should contact the office as soon as possible in the term for which they are seeking accommodations.

Attendance and Make Up Policy: Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work are consistent with university policies that can be found at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>.
