Course Description

HLP4933: Global Kinesiology (1 credit) is a seminar course that focuses on aspects of kinesiology, physiology, and biomechanics in an international context. In Spring 2022, this course will integrate company site visits in Germany into course discussions and assignments. This course is open to UF students in the College of Health and Human Performance that are participating on an HHP study abroad program. Instructor approval is required to enroll in this course.

Course Expectations

Students are expected to participate in all discussion and module activities. This involves submitting timely discussion posts and replies as directed. Discussion posts/replies submitted after the deadline will result in 0 / 10 points. Late assignments will result in the loss of a letter grade for each day after the deadline (e.g. an "A" will become a "B" if submitted one day late). This course is online and asynchronous. If there are any technical issues with regard to submissions, students should send the assignment directly to the instructor's email provided in this syllabus prior to the deadline.

Students will be able to incorporate notes from company site visits, discussions, and previous assignments in the course on this assignment. The purpose of this assignment is for students to synthesize their study abroad experience and reflections from the site visits into a single paper.

Students Requiring Accommodations

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565), <https://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc>) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter to present to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible.

Course Evaluation

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/evals>. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/>.

University Honesty Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code

(<https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. A violation of the honor code will result in academic sanctions (typically a failing grade assigned for the course) and further disciplinary action. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Software Use and Copyrighted Material

All faculty, staff, and students of the University are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use and the use of copyrighted material.
