COURSE DESCRIPTION

SPM 2060 is designed to introduce students to sport career tracts, as well as provide students resources to explore option areas where they personally connect with leaders and pursue industry related field experiences. Students will become familiar with building a professional brand, showcasing relevant skills and experiences, and potential career paths to be considered in the field of Sport Management.

REQUIRED AND RECOMMENDED MATERIALS

This course does NOT have a required textbook. All forms and documents are provided in Canvas.

COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

1. Describe the array of career tracts available in sport management.
2. Outline and develop professional career objectives.
3. Analyze experiences in which students can evaluate their strengths and abilities related to a career in sport management.
4. Construct personalized strategies that enable the student to secure future fieldwork experiences.
5. Identify and describe information highlighting professionalism and marketing their brand
6. Outline and identify industry resources correlated to each student's professional development

The assignment is somewhat above minimum requirements, organized, more descriptive than analytical, and contains minimal grammar and spelling issues.			The assignment meets most of the criteria with average organization, is descriptive rather than analytical, and includes poor grammar and spelling.			The assignment does not meet the minimum criteria.			The assignment does not meet the criteria.

GRADES

Grades are dependent on the student's performance measured by assignments. Final grades are based on the accumulation of points the student earns throughout the semester. Total points are converted to letter grades using the grading scale provided within. The grading scale is strictly enforced and unchangeable. The professor will NOT change grades at the end of the semester because the student is unhappy with their academic performance. Grades are maintained on the CANVAS site.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>.

Students are expected to attend class, arrive on time, and remain until dismissal.

PERSONAL CONDUCT POLICY

Professional behaviors are expected from all students. This includes respect and consideration for the ideas and beliefs expressed by all students. It is important for students to practice civil discourse as uncomfortable or challenging topics unfold in the classroom or online. Please use respectful language in person and through email correspondence.

- Adherence to the UF Student Honor Code
 - UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge, which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions.
 - The Dean of Students Office will receive alleged violations of the Honor Code regardless of the severity.

MAKE-UP POLICY

- Late or missed assignments are NOT accepted unless in accordance with the University’s make-up policy: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>.

ACCOMMODATING STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

- Accommodating students with disabilities is very important to me. If you are aware of your disability or might be concerned you have a disability, please register with the Disability Resource Center by visiting their Get Started page at <https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/>, call them at 352-392-8565, online <https://accessibility.ufl.edu/>, or visit the Dean of Students Office. Once registered, please visit me, or send me an email during the first two weeks of class to provide me with a copy of your accommodation letter to ensure I fully understand your needs. It is my goal to provide you with the tools necessary to ensure you are successful in the classroom.

ZOOM

- Zoom is an easy-to-use video conferencing service available to all UF students, faculty, and staff that allows for meetings of up to 100 participants. You can find resources and help using Zoom at <https://ufl.zoom.us>.

COURSE EVALUATIONS

- Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>.

INCLUSION, DIVERSITY, EQUITY, AND ACCESSIBILITY (IDEA) RESOURCES

- It is my intent that students from all diverse backgrounds and perspectives be equitably served by this course, that students' learning needs be addressed, and that the diversity that students bring to this class are viewed as inclusive as a resource, strength, and benefit. It is my intent to present materials and activities that are respectful of diversity: gender identity, sexuality, disability, age, socioeconomic status, ethnicity, race, nationality, religion, and culture. Your suggestions are encouraged and appreciated. Please let me know ways to improve the effectiveness of the course for you personally, for other students, or student groups.
- For suggestions or concerns related to IDEA, please reach out to any of the following:
 - Dr. Cyntrice Thomas, SPM Graduate Coordinator, cthomas10@ufl.edu
 - Dr. Cynthia Willming, SPM Undergraduate Coordinator, willming@hhp.ufl.edu
