Course Communication

All communication for the course will be disseminated either through Canvas Course messaging or through your University of Florida email address. Please make sure that when you're sending me an email that you are professional and that use your school email address and include the following information:

Name

Course

Respectful salutation (greeting: ex. Hello, Dear) and valediction (closing: ex. Sincerely, Best)

I will only send emails to your university email address so you should be checking that regularly.

Emails that come from personal accounts or contain no message in the body may not get a response.

Course Policies

This course is primarily done in a combination of a lecture format, case study exercises and team-based learning that examine the application of relevant laws to issues in sports. Video lectures and/or readings will be assigned for students to view and read in their own time.

Opinions held by other students should be respected in the discussion posts. Students are expected to watch the videos and complete readings and assignments for each module. Students are informed of the due dates for projects and assignment well in advance. Therefore, extensions will not be given for assignments and late assignments will only be accepted up to 24 hours after the due date and will receive partial credit. Make-up quizzes will not be offered. Exceptions are excused absences consistent with the university policies and appropriate documentation is required. It is the student's responsibility to schedule time to make up any missed assignments.

Because technical problems can arise at any time, I advised that you do not wait until the last minute to turn in assignments, complete discussions, or complete quizzes. I'm less sympathetic to issues due to procrastination.

University Honesty Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Course Grading and Requirements

Your final grade for this course is based on several categories of assignments each weighted differently and listed below.

Case Briefs (28%)

You will have six cases to briefs throughout the semester. During the first week of class, I will teach you how to brief a case. The purpose of the case briefs is to help students pull out the key components of a judicial decision and understand how courts interpret the law and arrive at their decisions. The assigned case for each case brief is also listed below.

Case Brief 1: Shin v. Ahn, 165 P.3d 581 (Cal. Ct. App. 2007)

Case Brief 2: Fleming v. Kent State 17 N.E.3d 620 (Ohio App. 2014)

Case Brief 3: Jackson v. Birmingham Board of Education, 544 U.S. 167 (2005)

Case Brief 4: Brentwood Academy v. TSSAA, 531 U.S. 288 (2001)

Case Brief 5: Abdul-Jabbar v. General Motors Corp., 85 F.3d 407 (9th Cir. 1995)

Case Brief 6: Kentucky Speedway, LLC v. NASCAR, Inc., 588 F.3d 908 (6th Cir.)

Quizzes (13%)

Each week students will take a short open notebook quiz on the material assigned for that class. There will be five quizzes throughout the course.

*Final Paper (34%)

As a part of this course, you will be required to pick a topic in sport law to write a research paper on. To reduce the desire to procrastinate (and also to help provide guidance along the way), the final paper is broken up into four parts to be completed throughout the semester. Instructions for the final paper and each part can be found on Canvas.

- Part I: Topic Submission
- Part II: Case briefs of 3 cases relevant to your topic
- Part III: Article summaries of 3 law review articles
- Part IV: Paper Outline
- Part V: Final Paper*

*Short Paper (9%)

In lieu of a midterm and final exam, students will be required to write a short paper (5 pages) based on research about a given topic covered in the course. Instructions and grading rubric can be found on Canvas.

Discussions (17%)

Because this is online course, we can't engage in traditional classroom discussions, so discussion questions are a way to provide a classroom experience online. Each student is required to make at least 3 posts for each discussion. An initial discussion post in response to the discussion question must be made by Thursday in each module. The remaining to discussion posts should be in response to other students' initial discussion post. Those responses should be substantive and provide additional analysis and/or raise additional questions. Each post should be between 150-200 words.

Assignment		Total Points
Quizzes (5) x 50		250
Discussions (8) x 25 pts each		200
Case Briefs (6) x 75 pts each		450
Short Paper (1) x 150		150
Final Paper	Part I 50pts Part II 75pts Part III 75pts Part IV 50pts Part V 300pts	550
Total		1600

All written assignments will be submitted through Turnitin via Canvas, unless otherwise instructed. Plagiarism is a violation of the Student Honor Code. If a student is deemed to have plagiarized, he or she can be given a zero for the* assignment and an Honor Code Incident Report will be filed with the Dean of Students Office.

*Do not ask the instructor questions regarding your grade. Rounding up is completely under the discretion of the instructor. Extra credit is not offered in this course. If you want to challenge a grade of a quiz or assignment, please come to the instructor with evidence from the textbook or case materials to justify your grade change request. You must do so within three days after the assignment has been graded.

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the disability Resource Center by visiting Disability Resource Center. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.
