Name

Course

Respectful salutation (greeting: ex. Hello, Dear) and valediction (closing: Sincerely, Best)

I will only send emails to your university email address so you should be checking that regularly.

Please allow for 24 hours for a response on the weekdays and 48 hours for a response on the weekends.

Course Policies

This course is primarily done in a combination of a lecture format and engagement exercises that examine current and relevant issues in sports. Opinions held by other students should be respected. Students are expected to complete readings and assignments for each module before class. Students are informed of the due dates for quizzes, and assignments well in advance on the syllabus and Canvas. Therefore, extensions will not be given for engagement activities or quizzes. Late assignments will only be accepted up to 24 hours after the due date and will receive partial credit. After that time assignments will be locked. Make-up quizzes will not be offered. Exceptions are excused absences consistent with the university policies and at the discretion of the instructor with appropriate documentation. It is the student's responsibility to arrange to make up assignments, if allowed.

Because technical problems can arise at any time, I strongly advised that you do not wait until the last minute to turn in assignments, activities, or quizzes. I'm less sympathetic to submission issues due to procrastination.

University Honesty Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Student Honor Code

and Student Conduct Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs for this course.

Course Grading and Requirements

*Your final grade for this course is based on several categories of assignments each weighted differently and listed below.

Case Briefs (36%)

You must complete at least 4 cases briefs throughout the semester. During the first week of class, I will teach you how to brief a case. The purpose of the case briefs is to help students pull out the key components of a judicial decision and understand how courts interpret the law and arrive at their decisions. The assigned case for each case brief is also listed below. You'll notice that there are 5 cases listed for case briefs, but you must only complete four. If you choose to do all 5, your lowest case brief grade will be dropped.

Case Brief 1: Kavanaugh v. Trustees of Boston University, 795 N.E.2d 1170 (Mass. 2003)

Case Brief 2: Yocca v. Pittsburgh Steelers Sports, Inc., 854 A.2d 425 (Penn. 2004)

Case Brief 3: Peirick v. Ind. Univ.-Purdue Univ. Indianapolis Athletic Dept., 510 F.3d 681 (7th Cir. 2006)

Case Brief 4: Jones v. W. Va. State Board of Education, 622 S.E.2d 289 (W. Va. 2005)

Case Brief 5: Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women v. NCAA, 735 F.2d 577 (D.C. Cir. 1984)

Quizzes (17%)

Students will take an open book/open notebook quiz on the material assigned for that module. There will be six quizzes throughout the course, but your lowest quiz grade will be dropped.

Midterm (Short Paper) (15%)

In lieu of a midterm and final exam, students will be required to write a short paper based on research about a given topic covered in the course. Instructions and grading rubric can be found on Canvas.

Legal Presentation (27%)

Students will make presentations explaining how the different areas of law impact their desired positions in the sport industry. The presentation will be divided into the three parts listed below. Instructions and the grading rubric can be found on Canvas.

Part I: Case Briefs

Part II: Article Summaries

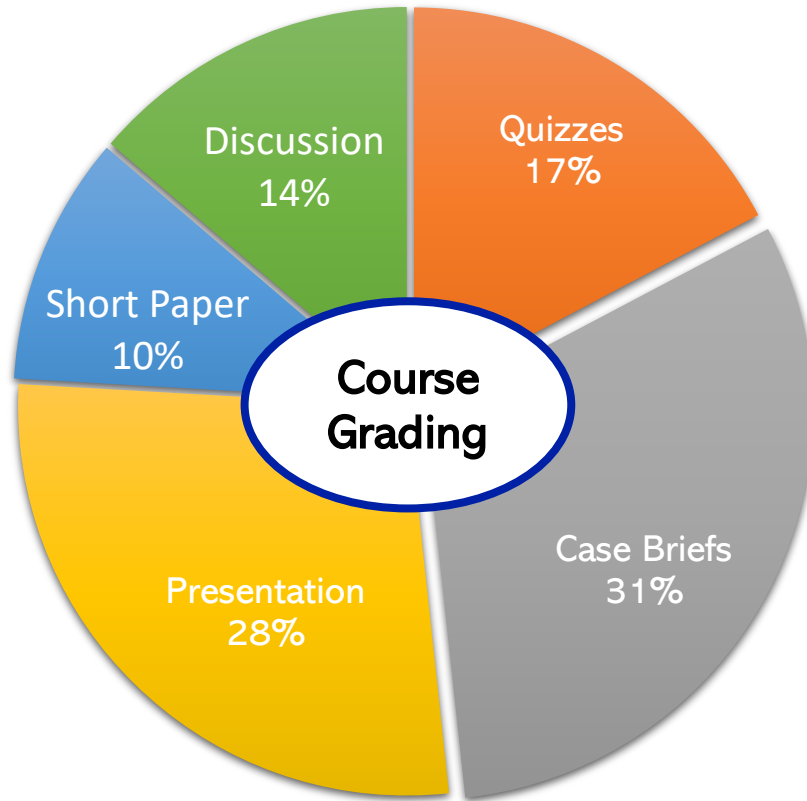

Part III: Final Presentation

Discussions (13%)

Because this is online course, we can't engage in traditional classroom discussions, so discussion questions are a way to provide a classroom experience online. Each student is required to make at least 3 posts for each discussion. An initial discussion post in response to the discussion question must be made by the first Thursday in each module (the exact date is included in each discussion prompt). The remaining to discussion posts should be in response to other students' initial discussion post. Those responses should be substantive and provide additional analysis and/or raise additional questions. Each post should be between 150-200 words.

Assignment		Total Points
Quizzes (5) x 50		250
Discussions (8) x 25 pts each		200
Case Briefs (6) x 75 pts each		450
Short Paper (1) x 150		200
Legal Presentation	Part I 75pts Part II 75pts Part III 250pts
Total		1500

 All written assignments are submitted through Turnitin via Canvas, unless otherwise instructed. Students are to work alone on all assignments. There is no group work in this course. Plagiarism and cheating are violations of the Student Honor Code. If a student has plagiarized, they can be given a zero for the assignment and an Honor Code Incident Report will be filed with the Dean of Students Office.

Grading Scale and Standards

*Rounding up is completely under the discretion of the instructor. Asking them to round up your grade is not necessary or helpful. Extra credit is not offered in this course. If you want to challenge a grade of a submission, please come to the professor with evidence from the textbook or case materials to justify your grade change request. You must do so within three days after the grade has been posted. Do not take screenshots of quizzes. The instructor already has access to them.
