

Center for Exercise Science
Seminar schedule
Spring 2012

Location: Room#235-FLG

Day and Time: Thursday @ 4:00 pm

Topic	Speaker	Date
The mysterious role of skeletal muscle Interleukin-6 production	Thomas Clanton, Ph.D. University of Florida	January 12
The pathomechanical basis of post-traumatic osteoarthritis	Don Anderson, Ph.D. University of Iowa	January 26
The Science of Sport Concussion: Translating Data into Concussion Prevention	Kevin Guskiewicz, Ph.D. University of North Carolina	February 9
Exercise and dietary strategies to prevent arterial aging	Doug Seals, Ph.D. University of Colorado	March 1
Near-infrared light therapy and its use as a therapeutic agent during musculoskeletal injury and repair	Paul Borsa, Ph.D. University of Florida	March 15
Targeting Impaired Overload-induced Growth of Aged Fast-Twitch Skeletal Muscle	Scott Gordon, Ph.D. East Carolina University	March 22
Hemispheric lateralization for motor control and learning	Robert Sainburg, Ph.D. Penn State University	April 5
Re-activating the former hand representation: lessons on human brain plasticity from current and former amputees	Scott Frey, Ph.D. University of Missouri	April 19