EDUCATION

University of Kentucky

Doctor of Philosophy, Exercise Science, Biomechanics: College of Education, Department of Kinesiology and Health Promotion
Graduated: May 2005, Summa Cum Laude
Concentration: Biomechanics
Dissertation: The Effects of Functional Fatigue on Active Multijoint Position Reproduction in Overhead-throwing Athletes

University of Virginia

Masters of Education: College of Education, Department of Kinesiology, Athletic Training and Sports Medicine
Graduated: June 2002, Summa Cum Laude
Thesis: Effect of Functional Fatigue on Three-dimensional Multijoint Position Reproduction Acuity in Overhead-throwing Athletes

Northeastern University

Bachelor of Science: Bouvé College of Health Sciences, Department of Athletic Training
Graduated: June 1998, Cum Laude

FULL-TIME ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

University of Florida, Gainesville, Florida

Clinical Assistant Professor: College of Health and Human Performance, Department of Applied Physiology and Kinesiology

Summer 2008-Present

Director: Graduate Athletic Training Education Program, Department of Applied Physiology and Kinesiology

Summer 2008-Present

CURRICULUM VITAE
Brady L. Tripp, PhD, ATC, LAT

Florida International University, Miami, Florida

Assistant Professor: College of Nursing and Health Sciences, Department of Athletic Training
2007–2008

Assistant Professor: College of Education, Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation
2005–2007

Coordinator: Master of Science in Athletic Training Program, Post-Professional Major 2007–2008

Director, Founder: Florida International Golf Academy and Sport Biomechanics Laboratory
2007–2008

Director of Clinical Education: Master of Science, Athletic Training, Post-Professional Athletic Training Education Program
2005–2007

Co-Director: Sports Medicine Research Laboratory, Post-Professional Athletic Training
Education Program
2005–2007

Director of Clinical Education, Approved Clinical Instructor, Clinical Instructor Educator:
Masters of Science, Athletic Training, Entry-level Athletic Training Education Program
2005–2007

Berkshire School, Sheffield, Massachusetts

Faculty: Biology and Sports Medicine Department

Head of Dormitory: Residential Affairs, Private Boarding Preparatory School
1998–2001

PART-TIME ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

University of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky

Part-time Faculty: Graduate Athletic Training Education Program
2003–2005

Eastern Kentucky University, Richmond, Kentucky

Part-time Faculty, Approved Clinical Instructor, Clinical Instructor Educator: Accredited
Undergraduate Athletic Training Education Program
2003–2005

University of Virginia, Charlottesville, Virginia

Assistant Instructor, Graduate Assistant: Undergraduate Sports Medicine Program
2001–2002

CLINICAL (NON-ACADEMIC) EXPERIENCE

Lexington Clinic Sports Medicine Center, Lexington, Kentucky

Research Coordinator: Orthopedic Surgery and Physical Therapy Clinic
2002–2005

CURRICULUM VITAE
Brady L. Tripp, PhD, ATC, LAT

Eastern Kentucky University, Richmond, Kentucky
Approved Clinical Instructor: Sports Medicine
2003–2005

University of Virginia, Charlottesville, Virginia
Certified Athletic Trainer: Men's and Women's NCAA Division I Cross-Country and Track Teams
2001–2002

Berkshire School, Sheffield, Massachusetts
Certified Athletic Trainer, Emergency Medical Technician
1998–2001
