EDUCATION

Doctor of Philosophy
University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY, May 2004
Exercise Science, concentration in Biomechanics
Dissertation Project: Kinematic and kinetic changes of single-limb landing tasks among collegiate female basketball athletes after a 6-week strength-training program
Comps Project: The effects of a 12-week strength-training program on the hamstrings: quadriceps ratio, peak torque, and time to peak torque in recreationally active females

Master of Science
Auburn University, Auburn, AL, May 2001
Exercise Science, concentration in Motor Behavior and Biomechanics
Thesis: The relationship between balance ability and lower extremity injury susceptibility among Division I athletes

Bachelors of Science
University of Florida, Gainesville, FL, December 1998 (Cum Laude)
Exercise and Sport Science, concentration in Athletic Training

Basic Massage and Hydrotherapy
Suncoast School of Massage, Tampa, FL, February 1998

ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

University of Florida, Gainesville, FL
Clinical Associate Professor and Program Director
Commission on Accreditation of Athletic Training Education (CAATE) Accredited
Athletic Training Program
August 2013-present

University of Florida, Gainesville, FL
Clinical Associate Professor
Program Director & Clinical Education Coordinator
Commission on Accreditation of Athletic Training Education (CAATE) Accredited
Athletic Training Program
August 2014-August 2016

University of Florida, Gainesville, FL
Clinical Assistant Professor and Program Director
Commission on Accreditation of Athletic Training Education (CAATE) Accredited
Athletic Training Program
August 2008-August 2013

Nova Southeastern University, Ft. Lauderdale, FL
Assistant Professor and Clinical Site Coordinator
Commission on Accreditation of Athletic Training Education (CAATE) Accredited
Athletic Training Program
August 2005-June 2008

University of South Carolina, Columbia, SC
Assistant Athletic Trainer, Approved Clinical Instructor and Adjunct Faculty
Commission on Accreditation of Athletic Training Education (CAATE) Accredited
Athletic Training Program
June 2004-July 2005

CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT

University of Florida, Gainesville, FL
Tripp, PM (2011-12) Athletic Training Education Program curriculum revisions to accommodate 5th edition of educational competencies and state of Florida taxonomy revisions (course numbering and prefix changes from APK to ATR).

Naugle, KN and Tripp, PM (2011-12) ATR 4112c Emergency Management of Athletic Trauma course revision – undergraduate course designed for athletic training (AT) students to recognize, assess, treat and refer traumatic injury and acute emergent illness.

Tripp, PM and Tripp, BL (2010) Study Abroad Class Athletic Medicine Discoveries Influencing Clinical Practice (Offered Summer A 2011 under HLP 4933) – included an e-learning component and abroad experience to London, Oxford, and Luton, England (initial offering had students from five different universities).

Tripp, PM (2009-10) Undergraduate Athletic Training Program Revisions Revised Course: APK 4315 Topics in Sports Medicine
New Courses: APK 4312 Clinical Pathology and Pharmacology | APK 4602 Functional Sport Conditioning.
Moved competencies and proficiencies from general APK courses and created athletic training specific program courses which align undergraduate program with current Florida Board of Governors and the Commission on Accreditation of Athletic Training Education (CAATE) guidelines.

Tripp, PM (2009) Bloodborne Pathogens (BBP) Training (E-Learning Course)
Created e-learning course for pre-AT, AT and Graduate AT students in the Department of Applied Physiology & Kinesiology to complete required annual BBP training.

Tripp, PM (2009 - present) Preceptor Training Program (formerly Approved Clinical Instructor Training) (E-Learning Course)
Created e-learning course for clinical supervisors who serve in the CAATE AT program; learning modules cover topics such as teaching and learning styles, communication, evidence-based practice concepts, evaluating proficiencies, etc.) and include assessments to document learning.

McGinn, PA (2008) ATR 3102 (formerly APK 3301) Principles of Athletic Training (4cr)
Developed new course for Athletic Training Program – undergraduate course designed to prepare AT students with foundational knowledge in the domains of AT.

McGinn, PA (2008) Undergraduate Athletic Training Program Revisions Updated course descriptions, pre-requisites, and aligned undergraduate program with current Florida Board of Governors and the Commission on Accreditation of Athletic Training Education (CAATE) guidelines.

Nova Southeastern University, Ft. Lauderdale, FL

McGinn, PA and Swann, E (2008) Exercise and Sport Science Major Proposal
Developed the proposal for a new undergraduate major in Exercise and Sport Science; structured to meet the Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Professions (CAAHEP) standards and guidelines for accredited Exercise Science programs. Completed all aspects of curriculum proposal and review commenting and revisions.

McGinn, PA (2008) EXSC 1200 Prevention and Care of Athletic Injuries
Undergraduate interdisciplinary course designed to introduce the student to prevention, recognition, and acute care management techniques for athletic related injuries.

McGinn, PA (2008) EXSC 3720 Biomechanics of Human Movement
Undergraduate interdisciplinary course designed to provide an interdisciplinary approach to the mechanical considerations and application of anatomy to human movement and sport skills.

McGinn, PA (2008) EXSC 3800 Exercise Prescription
Undergraduate interdisciplinary course designed to assist the student with conducting and analyzing the results from relevant measurements and evaluation techniques used in the health and wellness setting (special focus in the areas of cardiac rehabilitation and stress test interpretation).

McGinn, PA (2008) EXSC 4100 Adapted Physical Education
Undergraduate interdisciplinary course designed to allow students to study medical characteristics of common disabilities and methods for designing appropriate sport and exercise programs.

McGinn, PA (2008) EXSC 4200 Motor Learning/Development

Undergraduate interdisciplinary course designed to provide students with the ability to analyze the emerging interrelationships among the motor, social, emotional, and cognitive forms of behavior and development.

McGinn, PA (2008) EXSC 4300 Research Methods in Sport and Physical Ed

Undergraduate interdisciplinary course designed to offer a foundation for conducting research in the areas of exercise/physical activity and sport.

McGinn, PA (2008) EXSC 4400 Exercise and Sport Administration

Undergraduate interdisciplinary course designed to offer an in-depth background of the standards, policies and practices of organization, supervision and administration for sport and exercise programs and facilities.

McGinn, PA (2008) EXSC 4901 Practicum in Exercise Science

Undergraduate course designed to provide a capstone experience/internship opportunity for students wishing to pursue a career in the field of Exercise and Sport Science. Review of CAAHEP competencies and proficiencies as outlines in the American College of Sports Medicine's (ACSM) Guidelines for Exercise Testing and Prescription to prepare the student for ACSM certifications.

McGinn, PA (2006) ATTR 4900 Special Topics in Athletic Training

Study Abroad Class "Roman Influence on Medicine and Sport" (Offered Winter 2007) Study abroad experience to Rome, Naples, Pompeii, and Florence, Italy.

McGinn, PA (2005) ATTR 4900 Special Topics in Athletic Training

Study Abroad Class "Evolution of Sports Medicine" (Offered Winter 2006) Study abroad experience to Athens, Olympia, and Marathon, Greece.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

University of Florida, Gainesville, FL

HLP 4933 Variable International Topics – Athletic Medicine: Discoveries Influencing Clinical Practice (Summer A term 2011, 2013, 2015)

Study abroad experience to England – dedicated to the exploration and investigative learning in relevant medical and science museums and university research labs. Cultivate critical thinking and promote a better understanding of how doctors and their discoveries impact modern clinical sports medicine.

ATR 4432 (formerly APK 4312) Clinical Pathology and Pharmacology (Fall Semester 2010-present)

Undergraduate AT course introducing the student to the pathology associated with general medical conditions and pharmacological considerations. Course addresses CAATE competencies and proficiencies (knowledge, skills and abilities).

ATR 4832 (formerly APK 4340) AT Clinical Experience III (Fall Semester 2009-present)

Undergraduate AT course, which reviews and assesses the CAATE competencies and proficiencies (knowledge, skills, and abilities) associated with lower body injury evaluation and rehabilitation principles for orthopedic injuries. Students complete a clinical case or systematic review research project as part of this course.

ATR 3102 (formerly APK 3301) Principles of Athletic Training (Summer Semester 2009-present)

Undergraduate course which prepares AT students with foundational knowledge in the five domains of athletic training; addresses CAATE competencies and proficiencies (knowledge, skills and abilities).

ATR 4213c (formerly APK 4310c) AT Injury Assessment: Lower (Spring Semester 2009-present)

Undergraduate AT course introducing the student to the structure, function, and pathomechanics associated with lower body orthopedic injuries; addresses CAATE competencies and proficiencies (knowledge, skills and abilities).

ATR 4822 (formerly APK 4335) AT Clinical Experience II (Spring Semester 2009-present)

Undergraduate AT course, which reviews and assesses the CAATE competencies and proficiencies (knowledge, skills and abilities) associated with upper body injury evaluation and therapeutic modality principles.

ATR 4512 (formerly APK 4302) Athletic Training Administration (Spring Semester 2009-present)

Undergraduate AT course focused on administrative, ethical and professional practice concerns in the field of AT; addresses CAATE competencies and proficiencies (knowledge, skills and abilities).

ATR 4212c (formerly APK 4305c) AT Injury Assessment: Upper (Fall Semester 2008-present)

Undergraduate AT course, which introduces the student to the structure, function, and pathomechanics associated with upper body orthopedic injuries; addresses CAATE competencies and proficiencies (knowledge, skills and abilities).

APK 4315 Topics in Sports Medicine (Fall Semester 2008-Fall Semester 2009)

Undergraduate AT course introducing the student to the pathology associated with general medical conditions and pharmacological considerations; addresses CAATE competencies and proficiencies (knowledge, skills and abilities).

APK 4330 AT Clinical Experience I (Fall 2008)

Undergraduate AT course that addressed the CAATE competencies and proficiencies associated with risk management, prevention, protective equipment, emergency care, and first aid skills.

Nova Southeastern University, Ft. Lauderdale, FL

ATTR 1400: Health & Fitness (Fall and Winter Semesters 2005-2008)

Undergraduate AT course designed provide students with the basic concepts of health, such as nutritional issues, physiological concerns, and wellness screening. Students gain an appreciation for lifetime fitness activities and an understanding of how community programs provide necessary health services to the general public.

ATTR 2220: Clinical Experience in Athletic Training II (Winter 2006)

Undergraduate AT course focused on field experiences and the application of learned principles from AT clinical skills (specifically lower body, gait, and thoracic/lumbar spine evaluation).

ATTR 3230: Clinical Experience in Athletic Training III (Fall 2005)

Undergraduate AT course focused on field experiences and the application of learned principles from AT clinical skills (specifically upper body, cervical spine, and concussion evaluation).

ATTR 3300: Therapeutic Modalities and Lab (Fall 2006, Winter 2007, 2008)

An undergraduate AT course focused on sports therapy physical agents used to treat injuries of the musculoskeletal, neuromuscular, and integumentary systems including, but not limited to cryotherapy, hydrotherapy, electrotherapy, biofeedback, and mechanical therapy.

ATTR 3500: Rehabilitation of Athletic Injuries and Lab (Fall 2005-2007, and Winter 2007)

An undergraduate AT course focused on principles of a comprehensive rehabilitation program; specifically related to design and implementation of a therapeutic program. Students learn to incorporate exercises related to strength, proprioception and neuromuscular control to achieve sport specific goals and objectives. Students assess rehabilitation progress and criteria for return to competition.

BIOL 3700: Kinesiology (Fall 2005, 2006, 2007)

An interdisciplinary course focused on the anatomy, physiology, and biomechanics of the muscle system as it relates to the principles of movement (both normal and impaired movements).

ATTR 4900: Special Topics in Athletic Training “Biomechanics of Human Movement”
(Winter 2008)

An interdisciplinary course focused on mechanical considerations and application of anatomy to human movement and sport skills.

ATTR 4900: Special Topics in Athletic Training “Roman Influence on Medicine and Sport”
Study Abroad Course (Winter 2007)

An interdisciplinary course that included both lecture material and a weeklong field experience exploring the Italian cities of Rome, Florence, and Naples, which is dedicated to the study of the Ancient Roman Influences on Medicine and Sport. The course explored the historical influence of Italian culture on medicine and sports from Ancient Roman times and continued through modern day. Students understand the historical significance of sports medicine development and growth since Ancient Roman times, with specific to historical venues of the Gladiatorial games.

ATTR 4900: Special Topics in Athletic Training “Evolution of Sports Medicine”
Study Abroad Course (Winter 2006)

An interdisciplinary course that included both lecture material and a weeklong field experience exploring the Greek cities of Olympia, Athens, and Marathon, and dedicated to the study of the Ancient and Modern Olympic Games as well as a discussion of the progression of sports medicine.

University of South Carolina, Columbia, SC

PEDU 520: Kinesiology (Fall 2004)

Undergraduate course designed to provide students with the knowledge to complete the AT competencies and proficiencies in the area of kinesiology and biomechanics; web-assisted using Blackboard Learning System™.

University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY

KHP 515: Kinesiology and Biomechanics of Human Movement (Summer 2003)

Undergraduate course that provided an interdisciplinary approach to the quantitative and qualitative study of human motion as it relates to basic locomotor and advanced physical movements or skills; web-assisted using Blackboard Learning System™.

Teaching Assistant KHP 515: Kinesiology and Biomechanics of Human Movement (Spring 2003)

Assisted the lead faculty with course content specific to upper extremity and trunk anatomy and mechanics, practical laboratory sessions on anthropometrics, and evaluated written assignments and exams.

KHP 695: Laboratory Methods in Athletic Training (Spring 2003)

Graduate Course that provided the Athletic Training students with knowledge and skills using research equipment. Specific content covered: Biodex System 3 Isokinetic Dynamometer and Motion Analysis Three-dimensional motion capture system; web-assisted using Blackboard Learning System™.

Auburn University, Auburn, AL

Teaching Assistant HLHP 4970: Prevention and Care of Athletic Injuries (Fall 2000)

Undergraduate course designed to introduce Level I competencies to athletic training students. Assisted the lead faculty with course development, requirements and assignments; wrote and administered competency evaluations for the advanced athletic training students.

University of Florida, Gainesville, FL

Teaching Assistant PET 2622: Prevention and Care of Athletic Injuries Laboratory (Spring 1998)

Assisted a certified AT in the instruction of basic first aid skills, taping, and assessment of the ankle, knee, and shoulder.

ATHLETIC TRAINING CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

University of Florida – School of Theatre and Dance, Gainesville, FL

Athletic Trainer – Dance Wellness Clinic

January 2016 – February 2017

Primary Responsibilities: provide athletic training services for dance and theatre majors/minors participating in classes at the Nadine McGuire Dance Pavillion during weekly clinic at the Dance Wellness Clinic (G9); coordinate referral and communicate with medical coordinator (Dr. G. Nicolette) regarding diagnosis, management and therapeutic intervention; documentation and maintenance of records. Secondary Responsibilities: initiate/implement screening and injury assessment protocols

University of South Carolina, Columbia, SC

Assistant Athletic Trainer Women's Basketball, Golf and Tennis

June 2004-July 2005

Primary Responsibilities: Women's Basketball: Implemented preventative treatments, developed rehabilitation protocols, performed evaluations of various athletic injuries, provided treatment and rehabilitation exercise instruction for the athletes, maintained medical record information for daily treatments and rehabilitation sessions, and provided coverage for practices and games. Secondary Responsibilities: Supervision of a graduate assistant athletic trainer in charge of Men's and Women's Golf and Tennis. Traveled with women's tennis to NCAA tournament, provided practice and match coverage, daily treatments, and post-season rehabilitation.

University of Kentucky, Lexington, KY

Customer Service Representative for DJ Ortho/Orthopedic Solutions

August 2001-May 2004

Responsibilities: Maintained the office care account at UK Kentucky Clinic/Sports Physical Therapy and measured functional de-rotational braces for ACL-R patients.

Joyner Sports Medicine Institute, Lexington, KY

Rehabilitation Technician

January 2002-December 2003

Responsibilities: Assisted physical therapists with patient care; including application of therapeutic modalities and instruction and progression of rehabilitation exercises.

Auburn University, Auburn, AL

Athletic Trainer for Women's Gymnastics

August 1999-May 2001

Primary Responsibilities: Implemented preventative treatments, developed rehabilitation protocols, performed evaluations of various athletic injuries, provided treatment and rehabilitation exercise instruction for the athletes, maintained medical record information for daily treatments and rehabilitation sessions, and provided coverage for practices and competitions. Secondary Responsibilities: Assistant Athletic Trainer Preseason Football Camp; Host Athletic Trainer Cross-Country Meets; Host Athletic Trainer for Men's NCAA Golf Tournament 2000; Outreach Athletic Training Coverage for area high schools.

West Babylon Senior High School, Long Island, NY

Assistant Athletic Trainer

January 1999-May 1999

Responsibilities: Implementation of treatments, performed evaluations of various athletic injuries and administered basic first aid treatment. Provided coverage for varsity and junior varsity boys' lacrosse, softball and baseball.

CW Post College, Brookville, NY

Intern Athletic Trainer for Football

August 1998-December 1998

Responsibilities: Implementation of treatments, developed rehabilitation protocols, performed evaluations of various athletic injuries, provided treatment and rehabilitation exercise instruction for athletes, maintained medical records for daily treatments and rehabilitation sessions, and provided coverage for practices and games.
