EDUCATION

University of Kentucky

Doctor of Philosophy, Exercise Science: College of Education, Department of Kinesiology and Health Promotion

Graduated: May 2005, Summa Cum Laude

Concentration: Biomechanics

Dissertation: The Effects of Functional Fatigue on Active Multijoint Position Reproduction in Overhead-throwing Athletes

University of Virginia

Master of Education, Kinesiology: College of Education, Department of Kinesiology, Athletic Training and Sports Medicine

Graduated: June 2002, Summa Cum Laude

Thesis: Effect of Functional Fatigue on Three-dimensional Multijoint Position Reproduction Acuity in Overhead-throwing Athletes

Northeastern University

Bachelor of Science: Bouvé College of Health Sciences, Department of Athletic Training

Graduated: June 1998, Cum Laude

FULL-TIME ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

University of Florida, Gainesville, Florida

Clinical Associate Professor: College of Health and Human Performance, Department of Applied Physiology and Kinesiology

Summer 2008–Present

Director: Doctor of Athletic Training Program, Department of Applied Physiology and Kinesiology

Fall 2019–Present

CURRICULUM VITAE
Brady L. Tripp, PhD, ATC

Director: Graduate Athletic Training Program, Department of Applied Physiology and Kinesiology

Summer 2008–Spring 2021

Director: Athletic Training Outreach Services, Department of Orthopaedics, College of Medicine

Summer 2013–2018

Florida International University, Miami, Florida

Assistant Professor: College of Nursing and Health Sciences, Department of Athletic Training
2007–2008

Assistant Professor: College of Education, Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation

2005–2007

Coordinator: Master of Science in Athletic Training Program, Post-Professional Major

2007–2008

Director, Founder: Florida International Golf Academy and Sport Biomechanics Laboratory

2007–2008

Director of Clinical Education: Master of Science, Athletic Training, Post-Professional Athletic Training Education Program

2005–2007

Co-Director: Sports Medicine Research Laboratory, Post-Professional Athletic Training Education Program

2005–2007

Director of Clinical Education, Approved Clinical Instructor, Clinical Instructor Educator:

Master of Science, Athletic Training, Entry-level Athletic Training Education Program

2005–2007

Berkshire School, Sheffield, Massachusetts

Faculty: Biology and Sports Medicine Department

Head of Dormitory: Residential Affairs, Private Boarding Preparatory School

1998–2001

PART-TIME ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

University of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky

Part-time Faculty: Graduate Athletic Training Education Program

2003–2005

Eastern Kentucky University, Richmond, Kentucky

Part-time Faculty, Approved Clinical Instructor, Clinical Instructor Educator: Accredited Undergraduate Athletic Training Education Program

2003–2005

CLINICAL (NON-ACADEMIC) EXPERIENCE

Lexington Clinic Sports Medicine Center, Lexington, Kentucky
Research Coordinator: Orthopedic Surgery and Physical Therapy Clinic
2002–2005

Eastern Kentucky University, Richmond, Kentucky
Approved Clinical Instructor: Sports Medicine
2003–2005

University of Virginia, Charlottesville, Virginia
Certified Athletic Trainer: Men's and Women's NCAA Division I Cross-Country and Track & Field Teams
2001–2002

Berkshire School, Sheffield, Massachusetts
Certified Athletic Trainer, Emergency Medical Technician
1998–2001

ADMINISTRATIVE (NON-ACADEMIC) EXPERIENCE

Independent/No Affiliation, Gainesville, Florida
Expert Witness/Consultant: Provide expert advice in litigation matters regarding athletic training and sports medicine; describe the standards of care relevant to a case, recognize any breaches in those standards, render an opinion as to whether any such breaches are the most likely cause of injury. Services include trial preparation, expert testimony or consultation at trial and depositions, written reviews, document and site reviews.
2015–Present
