Gainesville, FL 32611

The Department of Health Education and Behavior offers dedicated research space in Yon Hall North, across the driveway from Florida Gymnasium. The space encompasses 7,474 square feet. It was extensively renovated and modernized in 2015 with support from the College of Health and Human Performance and the UF Office of the Provost.

Yon Hall North includes 9 enclosed offices for faculty and senior research staff; a large open bay with 6 work stations for students and part-time or temporary workers, 2 semi-private work stations, and 2 guest work stations; 3 smaller open work areas with space and furniture to accommodate 2, 3, or 5 research staff members; 3 interview rooms and a one-way-mirror interview observation room; 2 research/exam rooms to accommodate phlebotomy, anthropometric measurements, and human alcohol and drug administration studies; and Dr. Robert Leeman's EDGE laboratory. A reception area/waiting room by the main entrance is staffed by student assistants.

The Yon North conference room is equipped for group (e.g., Powerpoint) presentations, Skype and conference calls. All faculty and full-time staff offices include secure locking file storage for research records. University of Florida network and telephone system access to support research activities are provided. HEB pays for reserved parking spaces next to Yon Hall that may be used by research participants and visitors attending research-related meetings and functions in Yon Hall or the Florida Gym. Susan Chandler, M.P.H., M.A., Clinical Research Manager, coordinates research parking with backup by Kelly Smith, Administrative Support Assistant II (kquirion@hnp.ufl.edu or 294-1802). For non-research parking, please contact Ms. Smith or Donna Varghese, Administrative Specialist I (dvarghese@ufl.edu or 294-1639).

Please Note: Per UF Parking and Transportation Services, parking passes may not be provided to UF employees or students.

Susan D. Chandler, M.P.H., M.A., Clinical Research Manager, coordinates allocation of Yon North space and provides guidance regarding furniture and equipment. To reserve the conference room or an interview or research/exam room, please contact Ms. Chandler (schandler@ufl.edu or 294-1617) or one of the Yon Hall student assistants (294-1027). Lesly Ramirez (leslyramirez03@ufl.edu) is working in Yon Hall during the Fall 2016 semester. We are interviewing for a second student assistant at this time.
