INSTRUCTOR TEACHING PHILOSOPHY AND ROLE

Teaching Philosophy

My learning philosophy is that integrating interactive, real-world applications with collaborative exploration transforms theory into practice, fostering lifelong growth and professional excellence. In line with those ideas, my teaching philosophy has four key tenets:

Student-Centered Learning: This approach is essential in fostering an interactive and engaging classroom environment. It's not just about delivering content; it's about encouraging students to actively participate and share their ideas. Recognizing each student's unique strengths and needs is vital. By providing multiple methods of learning, I want to ensure that every student can succeed.

Practical Application: Integrating real-world examples into the curriculum is one way to bring theory to life. Drawing from my extensive industry experience, I want to show students how concepts apply in real-life situations. Emphasizing hands-on learning allows students to apply theoretical knowledge in practical settings. This experiential LEARNING is invaluable in preparing students like you for future career challenges.

Critical Thinking & Problem Solving: Encouraging the development of critical thinking and analytical skills is crucial. I achieve this through engaging case studies and best practices that challenge students to think deeply and critically about real-world scenarios. Promoting problem-solving abilities is another key focus. I do this by assigning projects and assignments that address complex industry issues, enabling students to apply their knowledge and develop practical solutions.

Collaborative Learning: Teamwork is a fundamental aspect of this approach. I promote collaboration through group projects and discussions, allowing students to learn from one another and develop essential teamwork skills. Valuing and incorporating diverse perspectives are also critical. I foster an inclusive environment where every student's viewpoint is respected and considered, enriching the learning experience for all.

My Role

As your instructor, I'm here to guide you through the rich tapestry of managing sports facilities, with a focus on practical application and theoretical knowledge. Expect to engage with a curriculum that blends lectures, hands-on projects, and insights from informative videos. This course is crafted to not only educate but also inspire you to think creatively and critically about challenges and opportunities in sports facility management.

What I Will Do

Be available: I am committed to supporting you throughout this course. I am available during office hours and usually 15 minutes before and after in-person classes for questions and discussions. Don't hesitate to reach out if you need assistance.

Provide clear structure: I will start lectures with the most difficult concepts and work backward, using examples to illustrate key points. This structured approach will help you grasp complex topics more effectively.

Encourage interaction: Active participation and preparedness are expected in all classes. It's crucial to let me know if you don't understand something. Your engagement and feedback are essential to your learning and help create a dynamic and interactive classroom environment.

What I Will Not Do

Repeat information: Please understand that I will not respond to emails or texts asking questions that have already been answered in the syllabus or in Canvas. It's crucial to review these resources thoroughly before reaching out with questions.

Tolerate dishonesty: I will not entertain dishonesty or unethical behavior. Honesty is fundamental to our academic integrity and goes a long way with me. Let's commit to maintaining a high standard of honesty and ethics throughout the course.

Adjust grades unfairly: I will not change grades or accept late work based on last-minute requests or personal appeals. It's essential to manage your time effectively and adhere to deadlines. Fairness in grading ensures that everyone is evaluated on an equal footing.

Course & University Policies

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Active participation is key to success in this course, and attendance is assessed through engagement in assignments, projects, presentations, and exams. You are expected to complete all coursework during the period in which it is assigned or administered. Failure to do so, whether due to absence, tardiness, or early departure, will result in a zero for that work without exception. It is your responsibility to obtain any missed information from classmates. Please note that our class attendance practices align with the University's policies, which can be found here.

PERSONAL CONDUCT POLICY

Students are expected to exhibit behaviors that reflect highly upon themselves and our University. UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obliged to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult the instructor or TA in this class. Violations will be reported to the Dean of Students Office for consideration of disciplinary action.

MAKE-UP POLICY

A student experiencing an illness should visit the UF Student Health Care Center or their preferred healthcare provider to seek medical advice and obtain documentation. If you have an illness, family emergency or death, please contact the Dean of Students Office (www.dso.ufl.edu) and follow the DSO Care Team procedures for documentation and submission of a request for make-up assignment (<https://care.dso.ufl.edu/instructor-notifications/>). The DSO will contact the instructor. Do not provide any documentation to the instructor regarding illness or family emergency. This is your personal and protected information. The DSO is qualified to receive and verify the documents you provide. The instructor will follow the recommendations from the DSO. Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found in the online catalog.

ACCOMMODATING STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the Disability Resource Center by visiting their Get Started page. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester.

Grading

Student performance is the bedrock of the grading system in this course. Assessment includes, but is not limited to, examinations, assignments, discussions/in-class activities, presentations, class participation, and projects. Your final grade will reflect the sum of points collected over the semester, translated into a letter grade according to the fixed grading scale provided in the syllabus. Please note that the grading scale is applied rigorously and will not be modified. Requests for grade alterations based solely on dissatisfaction with overall academic performance will not be entertained. For transparency and tracking, grades will be regularly updated and can be accessed through the CANVAS platform.

SUCCESS AND STUDY TIPS

Welcome to a journey of learning where enthusiasm meets dedication. As your guide, I am highly approachable and value honesty above all. My teaching style is animated and enthusiastic—and sometimes I can be overwhelming and quick (ask me to slow down, if need be), but I firmly believe that by reviewing the lectures and actively participating, you will set yourself on a path to success.

Remember, there are no bad questions—only missed opportunities to understand better. If there's something you're unsure about, I encourage you to ask. While I may not take formal attendance, I am observant and take note of who is present, engaged, and contributing to our class discussions. Debate and challenge are not just welcomed but expected; they are the crucible in which we forge a deeper understanding.

We all have unique insights to offer, and I anticipate learning from you just as much as you do from me. Let's collaborate to make this learning experience one where the exchange of knowledge is mutual. My aspiration for you is high—I hope to see you surpass my achievements by using this course to advance beyond the learning curves I encountered in my career and educational journey.

Let's make the most of this academic term by engaging fully, staying informed, and embracing the collective wisdom of our class.

Course Flexibility: Please note that, when necessary, I reserve the right to make modifications to the syllabus, including changing examination and assignment dates, as well as updating the course content. Any changes will be clearly communicated in class and posted on the course website. You are responsible for staying informed about and adapting to these updates.

Copyright Acknowledgement: All materials provided for this course are protected by copyright. They are for educational purposes within this course and must not be shared or used beyond the scope of our classroom without permission.

Legal Disclaimer: It's important to understand that the information we discuss in class does not constitute legal advice. Should you require legal counsel, I encourage you to utilize the campus legal resources available to you or consult with a professional attorney.

Class Demeanor or Netiquette: All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in email messages, threaded discussions, and chats. UF has provided a netiquette guide.

Privacy: Our class sessions may be audio-visually recorded for students in the class to refer back to and for enrolled students who are unable to attend live. Students who participate with their camera engaged or utilize a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, be sure to keep your camera off and do not use a profile image. Likewise, students who unmute during class and participate orally agree to have their voices recorded. If you are not willing to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live. The chat will not be recorded or shared. As in all courses, unauthorized sharing of recorded materials is prohibited.

For in-class recording, the following statement related to Florida's House Bill 233 is suggested but not mandatory:

Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A "class lecture" is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third-party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code & Student Conduct Code.
