College of Health and Human Performance Syllabus
Course Number: PET 6177
Athlete-Centered Coaching and Leadership
Semester: Spring 2025
Sections: 20489, 24998, 26921

---

This course explores various applications of the Athlete-Centered Sport Coaching model. Students will learn how elements of this model impact: coaching, team, school and recreational program development, groups in business, life outside of sports, program and individual development. Emphasis will be given to the analysis of coaching perspectives and the strong correlation between sports and business leadership.

Note: This course was previously SPM 6905 so if any documents or pages on canvas reflect that, it's because of the previous course number.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of this course students are expected to successfully:

- ✓ Design, organize and build an individualized Athlete Centered Sport Coaching model integrating student's personalized coaching plan.
- ✓ Extrapolate core concepts of Athlete Centered Sport Coaching model along with course related research to justify the elements chosen in the creation and development of personal coaching plan.
- ✓ Analyze and evaluate the challenges of youth development in relation to societal changes by comparing current research to both the methods and needs of coaching and business leaders.
- ✓ Differentiate and critique contrasting elements of both the transformational leadership and transactional leadership models through investigative research and employing personal experience.
- ✓ Evaluate and access both business and sport leadership's distinctive style elements in accordance to the elements presented in the Athlete Centered model.
- ✓ Analyze and differentiate between connections both business and sport leadership styles have in comparison, along with the Athlete Centered model.

Module 1: Introduction to Athlete-Centered Coaching

In this module, students will understand how sports participation can both positively and negatively affect youth development. The student will reflect on their personal history and experience as a coach and an athlete to evaluate the style of coaching they received and its affects. The role that the quest for achievement plays in identity formation will be explored. Students will also become familiar with the Athlete-Centered Coaching model, including its thought processes, elements and goals. Students will evaluate whether new societal influences necessitate coaching model and behavior adaptations.

Week	Assignment	Due Date	Points	Type of assignment
1- Introduction	Video Discussion: Personal Introduction	1/21	25	Intro/ Canvas Discussion
	Syllabus Quiz	1/21	5	quiz
2- Achievement Identity in Sports	Q/A- Achievement vs. Character	1/27	40	Written Work

4- Building Peak Performers	Q/A – Defining the Coach’s role in building competitive toughness	2/10	20	Written Work

Module 2- “Self” Leadership

In this module, students will study self-leadership and how the focus on identifying and removing personal constraints to performance as a coach reflect self-leadership qualities. All leaders teach more by what they do than what they say. All athletes need to remove constraints to reach their best, and coaches/leaders are not immune to that same need.

Week	Assignment	Due Date	Points	Type
5- Self-Leadership	Short Essay: Personal advisory board	2/17	25	Written Work

Module 3 - Leadership in Sport and Business

Success in sports requires teamwork, as does success in business. Correlations are being recognized between how sports leadership is similar to business leadership and how skills learned in sports performance can be applied successfully in life and business. In this module, differing forms of leadership will be explored, along with the pros and cons of each style.

COURSE POLICIES

Academic Integrity - Any individual who becomes aware of an honor code violation is committed to take corrective action. Academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. Students should be sure that they understand the UF Student Honor Code at <https://www.dso.ufl.edu/students.php>.

Students with Disabilities - Any student who feels she or he may need an accommodation based on the Impact of a disability should contact me privately to discuss your specific needs. This syllabus and other class materials are available in alternative formats upon request. Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation when requesting accommodation. For more information, refer to <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc>, (352) 392-8565 (V), (800) 955-8771 (Relay), Reid Hall Room 001.

U Matter, We Care - Your well-being is important to the University of Florida. The U Matter, We Care initiative is committed to creating a culture of care on our campus by encouraging members of our community to look out for one another and to reach out for help if a member of our community is in need. If you or a friend is in distress, please contact umatter@ufl.edu so that the U Matter, We Care Team can reach out to the student in distress. A nighttime and weekend crisis counselor is available by phone at 352-392-1575. The U Matter, We Care Team can help connect students to the many other helping resources available including, but not limited to, Victim Advocates, Housing staff, and the Counseling and Wellness Center. Please remember that asking for help is a sign of strength. In case of emergency, call 9-1-1.

Course Evaluations - Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at <http://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results>.

Course Communication - The student is responsible for getting a University of Florida email account (e.g., john.doe@ufl.edu) and should use this email for all university related correspondence – The instructor may not read emails from or send emails to any non-UF email addresses (e.g., john.doe@hotmail.com). Email subject should start with “SPM 46XX – First name, Last name - ...” Email use does not relieve students from the responsibility of confirming the communication with the instructor. Always sign your email – don’t make the instructor guess from whom the email was sent. The instructor will answer your email within two business days. However, a timely email response will be subject to the instructor’s commitment to research, scholarly activity, and service. Course-related communications such as syllabus, announcements, and other documentations will be available for students on Canvas (<http://elearning.ufl.edu/>). It is the student’s responsibility to check Canvas frequently for updates, notes, announcements, readings, etc.
