In addition, you have discussed and established an attendance policy that has been agreed upon with the agency, you the student and the THEM Internship Supervisor and to complete your internship you must complete a total of 520 hours during the semester.

PERSONAL CONDUCT POLICY

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions.

Furthermore, you are obliged to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult the instructor or TA in this class.

ACCOMMODATING STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers and would like to request academic accommodations should connect with the Disability Resource Center by visiting their Get Started page at <https://disability.ufl.edu/students/get-started/>. It is important for students to share their accommodation letter with their instructor and discuss their access needs, as early as possible in the semester. Students must share their accommodation with their agency before signing the two-page agreement to proceed with the internship.

Assignments

As you complete the senior internship and conclude your undergraduate education in the Department of Tourism, Hospitality and Event Management, please be sure to take advantage of the opportunities available to you in terms of experiences and potential contacts. Whether you decide to seek employment with the agency you are working with (interning with) or use the experience to expand your personal portfolio, the next few months can certainly have an influence on your professional future...embrace the opportunity.

Although we hope your experience will be fulfilling and rewarding (meet your goals), and your site supervisor will be proactive and guide you professionally, please understand that UF is here if you need to discuss complicated situations or circumstances that may be different than you anticipated. Your UF supervisor will be your point of contact throughout the semester, and it is expected that regular communication will take place. Please be sure to maintain regular contact with your UF supervisor, complete the internship reports according to the schedule and establish a positive line of communication with your site supervisor and other leaders within the agency.

Because many supervisors are extremely busy, it may be in your best interest to schedule the internship evaluations in advance so you can meet the UF deadlines and allow your supervisor to confirm these dates in his/her calendar. The documents listed below are available on the THEM website and on Canvas. It is your responsibility to meet with your site supervisor, complete and sign the forms and submit them to your UF faculty supervisor via Canvas on or before the dates noted below.
