Outstanding: The assignment is well above the minimum requirements, well organized, analytical rather than descriptive, and includes excellent grammar and spelling.

Good: The assignment is somewhat above the minimum requirements, organized, more descriptive than analytical, and contains minimal grammar and spelling issues.

Average: The assignment meets most of the criteria with average organization, is descriptive rather than analytical, and includes poor grammar and spelling.

Below Average: The assignment does not meet the minimum criteria.

Fail: The assignment does not meet the criteria.

Grades: Grades are dependent on the student’s performance measured by, but not limited to, assignments, discussions, and/or projects. Final grades are based on the accumulation of points the student earns throughout the semester. Total points are converted to letter grades using the grading scale provided within. The grading scale is strictly enforced and unchangeable. The professor will NOT change grades at the end of the semester because the student is unhappy with their academic performance. Grades are maintained on the CANVAS site.

Midterm Exam: The mid-term will be administered during the semester based on lectures, discussions, guest speaker(s), case studies, simulated exercises, group work, and supplemental materials. Exams are cumulative and include multiple choice, true/false, fill in the blank, and short answer questions. Make-up exams are NOT permitted unless absences are in accordance with the University’s Make-Up Policy. Exams dates noted in the course schedule are tentative.

Final (comprehensive): The final exam will be an applied comprehensive and applied exam. Students will be provided a case study to examine with a series of short answers and essay-style questions to complete. Each student will be required to apply the content discussed in class throughout the semester and conclude with findings appropriate to each case study. Make-up exams are NOT permitted unless absences are in accordance with the University’s Make-Up Policy. Exams dates noted in the course schedule are tentative.

Assignments (6): Six (6) assignments will be given during the semester based on the course content. Please review Canvas for additional details.

Discussions: There are eight (8) graded discussions, Authentic/Inauthentic Experiences, Ride Operator for the Day, The Fuzzy World of Standards, and the Future of the Theme Park Industry. Please review Canvas for additional details.

Let’s continue the conversation on Yellowdig: Yellowdig is a social learning platform to encourage engagement and assist with casual conversations, exchange of ideas, or occasional debates. Each module I will post a continuation of a lecture or pickup on a topic that requires additional discussion. Students are also encouraged to create their own discussion based on the topics being covered in class or sharing related news, etc. relevant to the class on the platform. Additional details regarding the use of the platform can be found on Canvas.

Project and presentation: Theme park and attraction design/development project and presentation (students will design and develop a theme park with a signature attraction and provide a management plan accompanying that attraction): Students are responsible for designing and developing a theme park/attraction for the purpose of a new theme park. Students will present/pitch their design to an industry executive. Upon completion, each theme park/attraction will be merged into a collective document for students to reference.
Course Policies:

Professional Behavior: Professional behavior is expected from all students. This includes respect and consideration for students, instructors, TAs, guest speakers, and supervisors. Examples of appropriate classroom behaviors include, but are not limited to:

- Paying attention to lectures;
- Reading course materials before class;
- Engaging respectfully in class discussions;
- Arriving to class on time;
- Entering the back of the classroom if you are late;
- Abstaining from side discussions with other students;
- Refraining from the use of cellphones during class;
- Putting away all electronic devices (unless otherwise instructed or agreed upon) before class begins; and,
- Demonstrating the use of appropriate language through communication in the classroom and/or via email.

Make-Up Policy: Late or missed assignments are NOT accepted unless in accordance with the University’s make-up policy: http://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx.

Attendance is not required, but absences are noted. (This does not apply to 100% UF Online students)

- If the student is absent from a live lecture, arrives late, or leaves early without completing the assignments, projects, and/or exams, zero (0) points are earned.
- If you are absent from class, you are responsible for obtaining the missed information from a classmate.
- Requirements for class attendance are consistent with University policy: https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/.

Excused Absences: According to UF, students may be excused from class for the following reasons: documented illness, serious family emergency, certain curricular requirements, military obligations, severe weather conditions as noted by the University, or observance of religious holidays. It is your responsibility to obtain missed information from another classmate. Requirements for class attendance are consistent with University policy: https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/.
Unexcused Absences: If a student has other commitments that prevent him/her from attending this course, the student should drop the course immediately. Unexcused absences include but are not limited to outside extracurricular activities, work, family or personal vacations, fraternity or sorority functions, problems with transportation, oversleeping, or choosing not to attend class. Missed information should be obtained from another classmate. Requirements for unexcused absences are consistent with University policy: https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/.

Honor Code: UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Click here to read the Honor Code. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Violations of the Honor Code: Violations will be reported to the Dean of Students Office for consideration of disciplinary action. For more information regarding the Student Honor Code, refer to https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/policies/student-honor-code-student-conduct-code/.

Email Communication: Students may email or contact the instructor after they have one (1) read the course syllabus, two (2) referred to the CANVAS website, three (3) reviewed their class notes, and four (4) consulted with another student regarding the information they are seeking. Emails are typically answered within two academic days, although emails sent one or two days prior to an exam or assignment will not be answered. ALL emails must include the following:

- To: brianavery@ufl.edu
- From: “insert_name”@ufl.edu
- Subject: “Insert Name” SPM 2060 (Sport Career Prep.)

Dear Brian,

My name is “Insert Name” and I am a student in your SPM 2060 (Sport Career Prep.) course. I have read the syllabus, referred to the CANVAS website, examined my class notes, and asked another classmate about _________________, but I am unable to find the information.
Academic Resources: This course is posted on CANVAS (e-Learning) and each student is expected to understand how the system works prior to the submission of scheduled assignments. If you require e-Learning support, please contact E-learning technical support at (352) 392-4357 and select option 2 or send an e-mail to learning-support@ufl.edu. For career assistance, contact the Career Resource Center, Reitz Union, (352) 392-1601 or go to their website: http://www.crc.ufl.edu/. Should you require Library Support go to the following website: http://cms.uflib.ufl.edu/ask.

Accommodations: Support services for students with disabilities are coordinated by the Disability Resource Center in the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the instructor, in person, when requesting accommodations. Please address accommodations needed during the first week of class.

Counseling Services: The UF Counseling and Wellness Center offers a variety of resources for students: https://www.counseling.ufl.edu/cwc/Default.aspx. The U Matter, We Care initiative is committed to creating a culture of care by encouraging members of the UF community to look out for one another and to reach out for help. The U Matter, We Care Team can help connect students to the many other helping resources available including, but not limited to, Victim Advocates, Housing staff, and the Counseling and Wellness Center. If you or a friend needs help, please call (352) 294-2273 or send an email to umatter@ufl.edu. Please remember that asking for help is a sign of strength. In case of emergency, call 911.

Instructor Feedback: Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via ufl.bluera.com/ufl/. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/.

COVID: Regarding face-to-face instructional sessions, please be mindful of the following policies. In response to COVID-19, the following policies and requirements are in place to maintain your learning environment and to enhance the safety of our in-classroom, office, etc. interactions.

- You are encouraged to wear approved face coverings at all times during class and within buildings. Following these policies and requirements are all of our responsibility.
- Physical distancing (6 feet between individuals) might be a requirement. If so, please utilize designated seats and maintain appropriate spacing between students. Please do not move desks or stations.
COVID Cont.:

- Sanitizing supplies are available in the classroom if you wish to wipe down your desks prior to sitting down and at the end of the class.
- Follow your instructor’s guidance on how to enter and exit the classroom. Practice physical distancing to the extent possible when entering and exiting the classroom.
- If you are experiencing COVID-19 symptoms, please use the UF Health screening system and follow the instructions on whether you are able to attend class.
- Course materials will be provided to you with an excused absence, and you will be given a reasonable amount of time to make up work.

In-Class Recording: Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Policy on Course Syllabi Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.
