Introduction forum (5 points):

Brief introduction to your classmates during week 1

Honorlock Quiz (5 points):

A brief quiz to assure that Honorlock is working on your computer.

Content Quizzes (110 points):

There are 12 quizzes. Quizzes are brief, open-book, open-note assessments based upon the reading assignment for that week. Quizzes may include multiple-choice, true/false, and/or short answer type questions. The lowest quiz score will automatically be dropped from your course grade.

Discussion Forums (60 points):

There are 6 discussion forums, each worth 10 points. Each forum will include a question prompt for you to respond to. You will also be required to respond to two of your peers' prompts. Be mindful of due dates, your initial prompts are due on Friday, to provide time to respond to peers by Sunday.

Personal health activities (110 points):

There are 11 personal health activities, each worth 10 points. Throughout this semester you will be challenged to practice building tools for your personal health and wellness. You will complete 11 personal health activities throughout the semester. These activities will take place in lieu of your Friday class period. It is your choice how you focus your time and efforts. But your personal health activity must be related to three of the six components of health (physical, social, or intellectual). You will choose the activity and complete it as an assignment. Activities could be related to a common goal, for example, if a student was interested in learning how to play pickleball, they could spend an hour each week on the pickleball courts. Here are some examples of activities that are related to the three Components of Health:

Physical Health – Swimming, running, team sports
Social Health – Volunteering, catching up with a friend or family member Intellectual Health – Reading, journaling or creative writing, learning a new language, Soduku or crossword puzzles

To earn credit for your personal health activity you will document what you did, when you did it and provide photo evidence (upload a photograph or screenshot from your phone) of your participation. Don't overthink photographic evidence, I am not looking for an action shot of you playing golf, a simple selfie on the golf course will do. If you spent your time reading, upload a picture of the book. Or, if you caught up with a friend of family member via phone, take a screen capture of your call time and submit it. If you have questions about documentation, please reach out to Dr. Black.

Keep in mind, you can focus on a different personal health activity each week or you can keep your focus on one activity. If you have questions about an activity, please contact Dr. Black.

The grading scale is as follows:

93%-100% = A

90-92%.99% = A-

Disclaimer: This schedule represents my current plans and objectives as of 1/13/25 As we go through the semester, those plans may need to change to enhance the class learning opportunity. Such changes, communicated clearly, are not unusual and should be expected.

COURSE POLICIES

Special Accommodations: The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protections for persons with disabilities. Among other things, this legislation requires that all students with documented disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you have a disability that affects your ability to learn, you are encouraged to register through the Disabilities Resource Center (DRC) in the Dean of Students Office at 352-392-1261, or www.dso.ufl.edu/drc. You are encouraged to provide your accommodation letter and make your needs known to the instructor within the first two weeks of the semester.

If you did not register formally, but you know you have behavioral or learning disabilities, or other issues, that might affect your performance in the course, tell me and I will do what I can to help you.

Academic Honesty: UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code (http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/) specifies several behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to ask.

Grade Appeals: It is your responsibility to review your graded assignments/quizzes/exams when they are returned. After a grade is returned/released, students have one week to appeal the grade with me. After one week, a grade will not be changed. THERE WILL BE NO EXCEPTIONS TO THIS POLICY.

Assignments: It is assumed that students will put forth their best effort on all course assignments to get the best results from the course. All module assignments are due by 11:59 PM EST on the date specified in the syllabus/schedule. Assignments will not be accepted late. You are advised to make back-up copies of all work and submit your work early to prevent technical issues from precluding successful submissions.

NOTE: Requirements for class assignments, discussions and other work in this course are consistent with university policies found at catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx.

Excused Absence Policy: Per University of Florida policy, excused absences include medical appointments and illness (with doctor's note), deaths in the family (with documentation) and school events (with documentation on school letterhead). Additional absences require documentation of medical excuses or extenuating circumstances and must be submitted to me within three days of the absence.

Course Evaluation Process: Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Capvas course many under complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/.

Course Email Etiquette: Professionalism is expected of all students. Thus, you should use proper etiquette when sending emails. This includes an appropriate "Subject" heading stating your course number and topic of message, a proper greeting/salutation, grammatically correct message body, a proper closing, followed by your first and last name.

For example:

Subject Heading: HSCXXXX - Chapter 2 quiz question

Greeting/Salutation: Hello, Dr. Black,

Message Body:

I think Question 2 on my quiz may have been graded incorrectly. On page ##, paragraph ##, it reads "[insert textbook information here]." I believe this supports why my answer selection of "True" is correct. Can you kindly review this question on my quiz and let me know your thoughts?

Closing:

Thank you!

Name:

Your first and last name / HSCXXXX

Preferred Pronoun and Name Change in Canvas: It is important to the learning environment that you feel welcome and safe in this class; and that you are comfortable participating in class discussions and communicating with me on any issues related to the class. If your preferred name is not the name listed on the official UF roll, please let me know as soon as possible by e-mail or otherwise. I would like to acknowledge your preferred name, and pronouns that reflect your identity. Please let me know how you would like to be addressed if your name and pronouns are not reflected by your UF-rostered name. I welcome you to the class and look forward to a rewarding learning adventure together.

You may also change your "Display Name" in Canvas. Canvas uses the "Display Name" as set in myUFL. The Display Name is what you want people to see in the UF Directory, such as "Ally" instead of "Allison." To update your display name, go to one.ufl.edu, click on the dropdown at the top right, and select "Directory Profile." Click "Edit" on the right of the name panel, uncheck "Use my legal name" under "Display Name," update how you wish your name to be displayed, and click "Submit" at the bottom. This change may take up to 24 hours to appear in Canvas. This does not change your legal name for official UF records.

Title IX: University of Florida has zero tolerance for sexual discrimination, harassment, assault/battery, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking. Students are encouraged to report any experienced or witnessed occurrences to law enforcement and/or one of UF's Title IX Coordinators. Students can report incidents or learn more about their rights and options by contacting Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution at 202 Peabody Hall, 352-392-1261; or visit:

www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/incident-report/ www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/victim-rights/

Respect Policy: "All individuals, regardless of their gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual identity, sexual orientation, race, ethnicity, religious affiliation, physical or mental ability, political affiliation, or any other perceived generalized differentiator, is welcome in this course. It is expected that we treat each other with respect and as equals. Treat one another as you want to be treated so that we can have valuable discussion in this course. Intolerant, inflammatory, or insulting behavior or speech is not acceptable and may lead to dismissal from the course." (Copied from Dr. Suzanne Murphy's, University of Florida, HSC4232, Fall2021 Course Syllabus).

Class Recordings: Per the House Bill 233 Intellectual and Viewpoint Diversity Act, you are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are:

- (1) For personal educational use.
- (2) In connection with a complaint to the university.
- (3) As evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding.

All other purposes are prohibited. You may not publish recorded lectures without my written consent.

As defined in the bill, a "class lecture" is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the university, or by a guest instructor, as part of a UF course.

This does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without my permission is prohibited. To "publish" means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section.

Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third-party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

Policy on Recommendation Letters: I will consider preparing recommendations for graduate programs, professional schools, internships, scholarships and for jobs if and only if ALL the following requirements have been met by you:

- You have completed a course with me and have a confirmed grade.
- You are/were in good standing in my course(s).
