Course Grading

The final grade for this course is based on several categories of assignments each with different point values and listed below

Quizzes and Assessments

Throughout the semester several quizzes will be given to help students keep up with the readings. Each quiz will be given at the beginning of class. Students who arrive late to class, after the quiz has been handed out will not be able to take it. Assessments are a part of team-based learning and will consist of both individual and group assessments. I will drop your lowest grade among the quizzes and assessments.

*Briefs

You will have four cases to brief throughout the semester. During the second week of class, I will teach you how to brief a case. The purpose of the case briefs is to help students pull out the key components of a judicial decision and understand how courts interpret the law and arrive at their decisions. The due dates for each case brief are included on the schedule and are also listed below.

Brief #1: Jaworski v. Kiernan, 696 A.2d 332 (Conn. 1997) due Tuesday, September 10th

Brief #2: Monson v. State, 901 P.2d 904 (Or. App. 1995) due Tuesday, October 8th

Brief #3: NFL v. McBee & Bruno's, Inc., 792 F.2d 726 (8th Cir. 1986) due Tuesday, November 5th

Brief #4: Brown v. Pro Football, 513 U.S. 231 (1996) due Tuesday, November 19th

Exams

There will be 3 exams for this course. The exams are not cumulative but will cover all assigned reading up to each exam period. The format for the exams will be covered in class.

Projects and Papers*

Throughout the semester, students will work in groups to research a case and develop an argument in favor and against the ruling in the case. Each group will give a presentation of their case to the class. Instructions regarding this project will follow.

The second major project for this course is an annotated bibliography. Student will work independently to collect and summarize seven law review articles concerning a specific legal topic in sports. Instructions regarding the annotated bibliography will follow.

Activities

Throughout the semester we will have several in-class activities and assignments. Student will work independently or in groups to complete assignments that will review and reinforce material covered in the course.

*Briefs and other writing assignments should be submitted in Turnitin via Canvas, unless otherwise instructed. If a student is deemed to have plagiarized, he or she can be given a zero for the assignment and can also result in a report to the Student Conduct Committee. Please be sure to properly cite all sources directly quoted and paraphrased in each assignment using the APA style. Citation style guides can be found on the library's website. If you are unsure about how or whether to cite something, please ask the instructor for guidance.

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/>) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

Course Evaluations

Students in this class are participating in the pilot evaluation of the new course evaluation system called GatorEvals. The new evaluation system is designed to be more informative to instructors so that teaching effectiveness is enhanced and to be more seamlessly linked to UF's CANVAS learning management system. Students can complete their evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Thank you for serving as a partner in this important effort.
