COURSE DESCRIPTION

The multidimensional roles of American women as individuals, partners, mothers, nurturers, caretakers, and career persons cause women's health status to be of vital importance. While women and men both experience similar diseases, disorders, and causes of death, women often experience these in different forms and at different stages and ages in life. The primary purpose of this course is to explore current issues in women's health. The course will cover a broad range of health issues that are either unique to women or of special importance to women. Additional topics include information for the health consumer, preparation as an advocate of healthy lifestyles, and awareness of the role health plays in the lives of all women.

3. Discussion Forum "DF's" (12 @ 8 points each with 1 drop permitted = 88 points)

Exams will consist of questions using various formats such as: multiple choice, true/false, and matching. Students are not permitted access to any kind of resource during exams.

COURSE POLICIES

Assignment Submission Policy:

- Be sure to check and double-check your file/assignment submissions! Students are responsible for verifying their submissions are complete and accurate before submitting them to the appropriate Canvas submission link. Incomplete, incorrect, blank, unreadable, and/or corrupted files/assignments will automatically receive a grade of zero as non-submissions; further, these types of submissions will not suffice for a make-up or resubmission after the assigned deadline. I suggest making all initial submission attempts at least 20 minutes prior to their deadline so that you have time to contact eLearning Support to assist you if any submission errors occur.

Late Work Policy:

- Due dates/times for all course requirements are posted in Canvas and set to Eastern Standard Time (EST). Students who live in time zones other than University of Florida’s Eastern Standard Time (EST) should adjust time-zone settings within Canvas. Click HERE to learn how to set a time zone in your user account?
- Late submissions will be accepted but will be subject to a penalty. For each day (24-hour period) a course requirement is late, the grade will be reduced by 20% of the total possible points for that assignment. For example, an assignment worth 10 points submitted within 24 hours of original deadline will receive a maximum possible grade of 8 points, and an assignment submitted within 48 hours will receive a maximum possible grade of 6 points. After 3 days (72 hours; 60% off), late assignments will no longer be accepted and a grade of zero (0) will be assigned.
- To clarify and exemplify, a course requirement with a deadline of 11:59pm EST, means 11:59:00pm or 11:59pm and zero seconds. If the submission time on Canvas displays 11:59pm EST but also displays “Late” then the submission was made at some point between 11:59:01pm (11:59pm and one second) and 11:59:59pm (11:59pm and 59 seconds. With that said, if Canvas displays the submission is “Late”, then it is late, and the late penalty will be applied accordingly. An assignment with a deadline of 11:59pm EST, should be submitted by or before 11:45pm EST so that if a submission issue occurs, one can contact eLearning Support (learning-support@ufl.edu or (352) 392-4357) to document and assist with the issue.

- Late penalties may be waived in cases of documented extenuating circumstances such as illness or family emergencies. Students who anticipate needing an extension due to unforeseen circumstances should contact Dr. Garcia-Guettler as soon as possible, preferably before the due date, to discuss potential arrangements.

Exam Policy:

- If you have an emergency or life event (including but not limited to, a new medical diagnosis or death of a loved one), please contact the Dean of Students Office (www.dso.ufl.edu) and follow the DSO Care Team procedures for documentation and assistance (<https://care.dso.ufl.edu/instructor-notifications/>).
  - You are absolutely not permitted an exam schedule adjustment or make-up for personal travel/vacations, so please make your travel arrangements accordingly.
  - Should a student miss an exam due to an unexcused reason (e.g., overslept, mixed up the exam time, etc.), the exam can be taken with a 20% penalty if taken within 24 hours of the original exam time or with a 40% penalty if taken within 48 hours of the original time.

Grading and Feedback Policy:

- I aim to return all grades within 10 days after the submission deadline, but there may be occasional delays in grading. Please review graded work and exams soon after their grades have been posted. (I highly recommend setting your Canvas Notifications to inform you when a grade is posted.). After a grade is posted, you have one week to inquire about your grade. After one week, a grade will not be changed. Please note that it is unethical and in direct violation of the UF Student Honor Code to request an unjustifiable (e.g., “rounding up”) grade adjustment (UF Student Honor Code: “Conspiracy to Commit Academic Dishonesty”).

Email Correspondence Policy:

- Please treat email as a formal and professional method of communication. Be sure to utilize proper etiquette when sending emails that include: (1) “subject” heading, (2) proper greeting/salutation (i.e., Hello, Dr. Garcia-Guettler, or Good morning, Dr. G, etc.), (3) grammatically correct message body free of typos, and (4) proper closure (i.e., Your Student, Thank you, Best, etc.) followed by (5) your first & last name. I will address you and treat you as an adult (both in person and through email), and I expect the same in return.

Artificial Intelligence (A.I.) Policy:

- Artificial intelligence (AI) language models may be used for any activity (e.g., assignment, assessment) to brainstorm or generate ideas. You are responsible for fact-checking statements composed by AI language models (e.g., confirming that the content does not violate intellectual property laws or contain false information). All work you turn in should be your own, original work. Many of the assessments in this course involve your opinion or personal perspectives and AI may not be useful in these circumstances.

Technical Issues Policy:

- Any requests for make-ups due to technical issues must be accompanied by the ticket number received from eLearning Support (Phone: 352-392-4357 | email: learning-support@ufl.edu) when the problem was reported. The ticket number (#) will document the time and date of the problem. The date/time stamp should be prior to the deadline in question. Students must contact the instructor with ticket # within 24 hours of the technical difficulty if they wish to request (and be considered for) completion of a make-up assignment.
- If you find yourself in an area with limited Wi-Fi access, please know that eduroam, the on-campus Wi-Fi network, is available nationally and internationally. UF students can access eduroam free with their GatorMail login credentials. Visit <https://getonline.ufl.edu/> for additional information.

Respect Policy:

- All students are expected to treat each other with courtesy, actively listen to diverse perspectives, avoid disruptive behavior, and refrain from personal attacks or discriminatory language during class discussions and group work, fostering a positive and inclusive learning environment for everyone.

Preferred Pronoun and Name Change in Canvas:

- It is important to the learning environment that you feel welcome and safe in this class and that you are comfortable participating in class discussions and communicating with me on any issues related to the class. If your preferred name is not the name listed on the official UF roll, please let me know as soon as possible by e-mail or otherwise. I would like to acknowledge your preferred name, and pronouns that reflect your identity. Please let me know how you would like to be addressed in class if your name and pronouns are not reflected by your UF-rostered name.
- You may also change your "Display Name" in Canvas. Canvas uses the "Display Name" as set in myUFL. The Display Name is what you want people to see in the UF Directory, such as "Ally" instead of "Allison." To update your display name, go to one.ufl.edu, click on the dropdown at the top right, and select "Directory Profile." Click "Edit" on the right of the name panel, uncheck "Use my legal name" under "Display Name," update how you wish your name to be displayed, and click "Submit" at the bottom. This change may take up to 24 hours to appear in Canvas. This does not change your legal name for official UF records.

Recording and Redistribution of Course Materials Policy:

- Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A "class lecture" is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course.

A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To "publish" means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third-party note/tutoring services.

A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student Policy on Course Syllabi 3 UF, Academic Affairs, August 5th, 2021, Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

Title IX:

- University of Florida has zero tolerance for sexual discrimination, harassment, assault/battery, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking. Students are encouraged to report any experienced or witnessed occurrences to law enforcement and/or one of UF's Title IX Coordinators. Students can report incidents or learn more about their rights and options by contacting Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution at 202 Peabody Hall, 352-392-1261; or visit: <https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/>.

Academic Integrity Policy:

- Each student is expected to make an honest effort in this class and to be scrupulous in maintaining academic integrity. Cheating and plagiarism will not be tolerated, and college guidelines on academic misconduct will be enforced.
- UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Click here to read the Honor Code. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor of this class.

Course Evaluations:

- Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>.

Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA):

- The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) is a federal anti-discrimination statute that provides comprehensive civil rights protections for persons with disabilities. Among other entities, this legislation requires that all students with documented disabilities be guaranteed a learning environment that provides for reasonable accommodation of their disabilities. If you registered through the Disabilities Resource Center (DRC) in the Dean of Students Office at 352-392-1261, or www.dso.ufl.edu/drc and you need specific accommodations for the course, I will gladly provide those accommodations.
- Any student who needs accommodations to complete the requirements and expectations of this course due to documented disability should provide his/her formal documentation via email to the instructor within the first week of the semester or as soon as possible.
- If you did not register formally, but you know you have behavioral or learning disabilities or other issues that might affect your performance in the course, please let me know as soon as possible so that we can work together to develop strategies for adapting assignments to meet both your needs and the requirements of the course.

Recommendation Letters Policy:

- I will consider preparing recommendations for graduate programs, professional schools, internships, scholarships and for jobs if and only if ALL of the following requirements have been met by you:
  - a. Have COMPLETED at least one course with me and received an “A” grade. For clarification, “completed” means that the student’s final grade has been submitted to the registrar and made available by UF via transcript view or ONE.UF.
  - b. Were actively engaged in class activities, discussions forums, and/or other related assignments.
  - c. Submitted all assignments and activities by their assigned deadlines.
  - d. Have engaged with me personally during office hours or by appointment at least TWICE during each course to share about yourself (graduate school interests, career goals, lecture content, etc.)
  - e. Are willing to waive your right to review the letter of recommendation

- f. Provide your recommendation request to me verbally (in-person or virtually) and via email at least 5 weeks prior to the date the recommendation is due.
- To avoid any conflict of interest, recommendation letters will not be written for a student if they are currently enrolled in/taking a course with me; however, requests will be considered after the course has been completed (refer to “a.” above).

Supplemental Information about Discussion Posts & Replies: by Elle O'Keefe

<http://www.rasmussen.edu/student-life/blogs/online-learning/creating-the-perfect-discussion-post-for-online-classes/>

- The discussion area is the foundation for two-way communication with your instructors and classmates. The discussion forum is the heart of the online course as it serves as a platform for learning and engaging.
- As an online learner, you hope that your post will draw other students' attention to validate your opinions, add insight, and build a stronger learning experience. Classmate feedback can be priceless to your learning process as an online student. After you make such an investment, it can be discouraging to see that nobody responded to your discussion post.
- There are a few things online students can do to make your discussion posts stand out to your peers and to your instructors in order to get more responses and help increase your grades. This article will highlight some great tips for creating the perfect discussion post for your online college courses.

Content

- Make sure that your posts facilitate comments. Sometimes in a discussion forum the questions can be worded so that everyone's responses are similar. In this case, you will want to go the extra mile by adding a question at the end of your post so you are facilitating a question and answer-type conversation among your classmates and instructor.
- Beyond answering just the questions, incorporate your experiences with a related subject matter. People love to read stories, because it helps them feel an emotional connection to the content.
- Current events are an effective way to get people involved in discussion forums. Local or national news stories may tie in perfectly content discussed in your online classroom's forum. For example, an article about mortgage fraud might be beneficial in a discussion forum about ethical decision making.
- Don't be afraid to intertwine the course content learned in different courses to supplement your discussion forums. Learning is funny: even though we might just think that all courses are taught in isolation, they all really combine as pieces of a larger puzzle.
- Ask a thought-provoking question or taking a controversial stand. After you learn the material, you can step back and look how you can apply it in a difficult situation where your original answer might seem counter-intuitive. Don't be afraid to ask the "Yeah, but what if..." questions.
- If you say the same thing everyone else says, you can expect the same results. Add something different, something of value, and look at the changes to your response rate.

Formatting

- If your post is easy to read, it is likely that more people will read and respond. In such case, if everyone is using single spacing, use single spacing. If everyone is formatting the text to the left, format it to the left. If everyone uses size 3, use size 3. If everyone is using a specific font and color, use the specific font and color. You want to avoid any distracting colors, fonts, or awkward spacing, or other odd formatting. Take a look at your posts, to see how similar they are to your classmates' posts. If they are quite different, then change them.
- Avoid spelling or grammatical errors. You lose credibility and your instructors and fellow students may discount the quality of your posts if your posts are riddled with errors. Don't let the reader try to interpret what you are saying: say it clear and precise.
- Replies. If you want to maximize the amount of responses, respond to several peers each week. First, identify a group of peers whose opinions you value (by judging the quality of their posts and responses to other classmates) and make sure to respond to at least one of the members of that group each week.
- Try to respond to every one of your classmates throughout the course. When you show that you value your classmates' contributions, they will value yours. Remember the saying; the best way to make a friend is to be one. Well, the best way to be responded to in the discussion forum is by providing good responses to your classmates.
